circle this date on your calendar, Diane Dyal, President of the local association, furnished details on the annual PTA Spaghetti dinner to be held that night in the cafeteria of the Sandy grade school. Plan on attending.

The grade school cafeteria staff is donating their time to make the dinner, and their unselfish efforts should not go unrecognized: Marie Swartz, Amelia Berglund, Millie Lenz, Grace Morner, Nellie Lane, Virginia Dobson, Maude Eri and Martha Hansen.

Heading the organization of the event are Ways and Means chairman, Helen Swalls and co-chairman Sadie Klein. Dinner will be served from 5:30 to 7 p.m.

It was brought to my attention that Al Morner's expression was in sharp contrast to the other smiling past Presidents of the local Kiwanis pictures in last week's Post. Maybe there was a reason for spelling his name "Mourner" underneath...

Welches Carnival Saturday

Prizes, more prizes and plenty of surprises, too, have been promised to visitors at this Saturday night's Welches PTA Carnival at the school. Festivities of the evening will commence at 6 p.m. and continue until the 10 p.m. hour. Members of the PTA there have been real busy this week getting everything necessary for the annual event into ship shape. There are a number of games of chance and skill that are prepared for the big event. Among some of the plans for the evening are a House of Horrors, cake walk, a jail, a country store, white elephants and a number of other booths. Committee members report that an article valued at $150 has been donated for the carnival. Everyone is urged to attend the carnival and find out what the weather is and how they might become eligible for it.

Another surprise for the evening will be for some student at the school. The only clues committee members would give out about this special prize is that the student it is for must be present at the carnival to receive it. For those who are on the hungry side they have promised plenty of good food including hot dogs, cider, Darr's doughnuts, pop, and hot coffee. The merchants of Sandy and Hood-Land have donated numerous prizes for this event and a list of winners and donors will be published in next week's issue of The Sandy Post. Welches PTA members extend an invitation to all to attend Saturday.

During a time of distress you can be sure we will assume as many of your problems and burdens as is humanly possible.

Youth Corps Senators Report Bridge Cleared

Portland General Electric office in Sandy, met with members of the board and suggested various routes and methods that could be used to bring electricity to the new physical education and athletic fields. He presented estimated costs for the projects, too.

In another decision of the evening school board members decided to post the new parking area at the high school, as well as the rest of the school grounds to a ten mile per hour speed limit.

The latest available information on the new school bus ordered last May stated that it would be available for transportation here on Oct. 20. The bus will be picked up at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa.

A telephone call from the offices of Senators Wayne Morse and Maurine Neuberger at presstime Wednesday, Oct. 20, provided the following information:

"Be advised that the Mt. Hood Forest right-of-way clearance has been received by the Attorney General's office and construction will begin on November 1st."

This item is in regards to the Vine Maple Bridge in the Rhododendron area. The loss of the bridge there has caused much controversy in past months. It was a victim of the disastrous flood during the Christmas week last year. All facilities will be restored the senators stated.

Nursing Home Holds Tea

Patients at McGuire's Nursing Home in Sandy took part in a tea held last Sunday at the home.

Visitors from the Estacada Christian church, World Fellowship, American Legion Auxiliary, Oregon City, Gresham and Sandy were taken on a personal tour of the home's facilities. Refreshments and entertainment were also provided those in attendance.

Acting as hostess for the tea was Alice Richards, Pouring tea was Virginia Shultz and Eunice Lindland. In line with the fall season a color scheme using yellows and orange was evident.

Guided tours through the home were given by Martha Graft, owner and operator of McGuire's Nursing Home.

Redfern Cops Contest Dough

Missing only one high school game and the three college tie battles in last week's Post Football Contest, June Redfern of Brightwood becomes the fifth first place winner here. She receives $10.

Second and third place winners in the contest are Al Ross and Gerry Barker, respectively. Both are repeat winners in this year's first annual armchair quarterback game. Also, both are Sandy residents.

Ross has captured second prize money for four of the five weeks. Week before last being the first time he was not in the winner's bracket as he was edged out of third place by virtue of the tiebreaker game. Ross missed five games.

Placing third in this past week's contest makes Barker a three-time winner with two thirds and a second to his credit. Third prize was determined by the tiebreaker game again this week with Barker missing the Wy-east-Sandy game call by one single point (20-7). The final score being 20-6.
