Memberships Up For Student Body At Orient School

The annual membership drive for the Orient student body was concluded last week. Of the 324 students in the East building, 315 bought membership into the group. This constitutes a percentage of 97 compared with the leading sales of past years which were: 98% in 1960-61 and 1963-64, 97% in 1958-59, and 94% in 1962-63.

Membership entitles students to gain free admittance to three professional assemblies, receive four issues of the school paper free of charge, and makes students eligible to participate in all extra curricular activities sponsored by the student body, to include athletics, choir, and band.

Boring Students Plan Visitation To Power Sites

Seventh and eighth grade students from the Seventh Day Adventist school in Boring have scheduled a tour of Portland General Electric Co. Clackamas River hydroelectric projects on Wednesday, Oct. 27. The group of 25 pupils will visit PGE's River Mill, Faraday and North Fork hydroelectric projects and observe construction of the new Faraday diversion dam on the Clackamas River near Estacada.

PGE educational representative Clyde Walker will visit the school before the scheduled tour to talk to students about the generation of electricity and to present background material for the field trip.

Plant tours and classroom lectures are part of the company's education program conducted in cooperation with schools within PGE's service area.

American servicemen stationed in Vietnam who wish to marry Vietnamese are required to fill out 15 different forms.

Music Festival Slated Saturday

Vocal groups from six area high schools will be featured at the second annual Festival of Music sponsored by the Centennial Lions club.

It will be held this Saturday evening at 8 p.m. in the Centennial high auditorium. Proceeds will be split between the music departments of the various high schools and the artificial kidney fund.

Tickets are available from Lions, at the high schools and at the door.

Participating in the program will be the C-Notes from Centennial, the David Douglas Vagabonds, the Gresham Overtones, the Parkrose Debonaires, the Reynolds Chantels and the Sandy Pionaires. A special attraction will be a teen-age group from Reynolds high, the Cheetahs.

Judging Teams Compete at PI

Three judging teams represented Clackamas County in the 4-H judging contests held at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition in Portland, Saturday, Oct. 9.

The dairy and meat animal teams received red awards and the horse judging team a white award.

Members of the dairy team were Joyce Demshar, Canby; Targie Lewis, Meadowbrook; and Linda Moore, Boring.

Those on the meat animal team were Dorothy Koncel, Beavercreek; and Steve Lippincott and Wade Miles, both of Canby.

The horse judging team was composed of Glynda Turner, Viola; Bob Alford, Logan; and Mike Veselik, Estacada.

Summer school scholarships were donated by 4-H leaders and camp scholarships by the Helping Hands club, Boring PTA and Boring 4-H leaders. State fair exhibitors named were Sharon Gantenbein, Steve Gantenbein, Carol Meier, Linda Moore, Bob Richey and Ray Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lane have just returned from a trip to Chico, Calif., where they visited their son and his family. They found the weather exceptionally warm, and they visited Trudi Meier's sister on the return trip, staying at her family's hotel in eastern Oregon.
