October BPW Honor Girl Is Diana Blaisdell

October's Girl of the Month chosen by the Business and Professional Women's Club of Sandy is Diana Blaisdell. She was selected on the basis of diligence.

She is corresponding secretary in the American Field Service Club, historian of the National Honor Society, news editor of the Pioneer Press, and an active member in Quill and Scroll and Speech Club at Sandy high school.

Miss Blaisdell plans to attend the University of Oregon next fall to continue her education.

GOATS TAKE RIBBONS

Three Toggenburg Goats owned by Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Romay of Aims won ribbons at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition held in Portland. They entered the Junior and Reserve Champions in this division.

In all their entries brought home a first, second, third and fourth. The third and fourth place entries were among the milking goats.

We are all of us imaginative in some form or other for images are the brood of desire.

OBITUARIES

MARGARET S. TATUM

Mrs. Margaret S. Tatum, born in York, Pa., in 1878, widow of Col. H. C. Tatum formerly of Carmel and La Jolla, Calif., died Friday, Oct. 15, at St. Jude's Home, Sandy.

Mrs. Tatum was a long time resident of the Pacific coast, having come to Seattle, Wash., as a child in 1887.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Sheldon Ellwood of Brightwood, and Mrs. John F. Rambeau of Norman, Okla., a sister, Mrs. Stella Lee of Langley, Wash., four grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Private family services were held at Bateman Funeral Chapel with final interment at Rosecrans National cemetery, San Diego, Calif.

LARRY LONGSTREET

Larry Lee Longstreet, Rt. 2, Box 857, Sandy, died Friday, Oct. 15, at his home. Larry was born in Portland on May 21, 1950. He had lived all of his life in the Sandy area. He was a sophomore at Sandy high school.

Larry is survived by his parents Foster and Lena Longstreet; two brothers, Roland and William; and a sister, Pamela, all of Sandy and a grandmother, Mrs. Jessie Coward of Los Angeles.

Services were Monday, Oct. 18, in the Seventh-day Adventist church in Sandy. Elder Ira D. Follett, officiating.

Burial was in the Sandy cemetery. Arrangements were by Carroll Funeral Home, Gresham.

WARREN L. CRUTCHER

Warren L. Crutcher, Rt. 2, Box 149, Boring, died in a Redmond hospital after suffering a heart attack while fishing. He was born Sept. 14, 1895, in Nashville, Tenn.

Crutcher came west when four years old, received his education in Portland and Welches and lived on a section of land homesteaded by his parents in the Zig Zag area, a place that shows now on the maps as Crutcher's Bench.

He enlisted in the army June 24, 1918, and served in France. Upon his return from service he was united in marriage to Louise Lindstrom of Ione. He again lived in the mountain area near Brightwood where he logged and built and operated a shingle mill. He spent the next 18 years as fire warden for Clackamas and Marion counties.

Survivors include his wife, Louise; sons, Lee, Newberg; and Kenneth, Boring; daughters, Mrs. Patricia von Borstet, of Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Mrs. Phyllis Goochin, San Francisco; and 10 grandchildren.

He was a member of Sandy Lodge No. 158 A.F. and A.M., and the Sandy American Legion. Funeral services will be held Thursday, 10:30 a.m., at Bateman funeral chapel with interment at Willamette National cemetery.
