

Ex-Army Cartographer Joins Sandy Faculty

Mrs. Barbara Pope joined the faculty staff at Sandy high school this year, where she teaches beginners art classes to all four grades. She also has a remedial reading class, besides teaching regular English to juniors and seniors.

Before coming to this area Mrs. Pope taught art classes in schools on the east coast for several years. Prior to this she spent four years in the U.S. Army as a cartographer. For two years of her stay in the Army she was stationed at a base in Heidelberg, Germany, and took advantage of her stay there to travel extensively throughout Europe.

Mrs. Pope received her BA in art education from the University of Maryland and her MA in English literature from the University of Portland.

"It took us a good year to slow down to the pace of living out here, things are so much faster on the east coast," she said. The Papes live in Milwaukie and husband Carl is a Mechanical Engineer with the Worthington Corporation.

Pioneer Days

By LILLIAN TEN EYCK

The snow of the Christmas holidays had many disadvantages but there were some advantages. One good thing accomplished was to cover up for the time being the unsightly trash along the road tossed out by lazy, shiftless motorists.

The manufacturers of hard and soft drinks proudly announce that now the bottles will not be redeemed. The drinkers can keep them and do whatever they wish with these containers. I'll tell you where many will land; right along our lovely scenic road. There was a letter in the daily North Bend which I think is very apt.

The Rum Age

"Throughout North Bend on many of the business building doors and windows, I notice the advertisement 'Rum Age'." This causes me a great deal of wonderment as to why they take the time and trouble to advertise when the fact is so apparent.

To anybody with two eyes or even half of one, this fact cannot be missed that we have been in the "Rum Age" for some time when I see all the cans bottles, paper trash and other debris that litter our streets. I wonder if we are blind, don't care or are just plain ignorant. What a sight to present to our tourist trade."

As soon as the snow is gone, my faithful yellow wheelbarrow and I will make a journey along my property. I wish some smart, clever scientist would invent a can or bottle that would disappear in the air as soon as it was emptied but I suppose that would add to smog.

Well, that's one of my New Year's resolutions to keep my share of the roads clean. Another resolution is not to watch any T.V. program that has bangs and murders. I know the old world is in a turmoil but do we have to make it worse by having sordid programs to entertain us? One has only to watch children to realize how much of their play is acting out what they have seen on the screen. The power of suggestion has a strong effect on young minds. I wish the public would refuse to endorse such programs. I guess that is the only way the sponsors will clean up this sort of entertainment.

But, anyway, a real, pleasant 1966 to all and may you have many new years.

MRS. JOHN ARTHUR LAKE
(Janice Collins)

(Gateway Studio)

Janice Collins Weds John Lake

Miss Janice Collins of Gresham exchanged wedding vows with John Arthur Lake of Rhododendron in a double ring ceremony at the Gresham Assembly of God church on Dec. 11.

The bride, a graduate of Gresham high school, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Collins, Rt. 3, Box 486, Gresham, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Lake of Rhododendron are parents of the bridegroom who was graduated from Sandy high school.

Rev. L. Otis Triplett, pastor, performed the ceremony. Shelley Soule was flower girl and John Eric Hood, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Mrs. Don Columbo of Portland was matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ronald Newlands of Boring and Miss Sharon Carson of Gresham. They wore identical empire gowns with lace bodices and blue velvet skirts. They carried fans topped with artificial white roses.

Charles Lake, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Bill Lake of Government Camp, Ronald Newlands of Boring and Gordon Newlands of Rockwood.

When the bride was given in marriage by her father, she wore a lace and satin empire styled gown. Her bouffant veil of illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls accented with pearl tear drops. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bride's dress was made by Mrs. A. B. Comer of Boring.

A reception for 400 guests was held in the church. Mrs. George Lake poured and Mrs. Arthur Carson presided at the punch bowl. The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Roy Collins and Mrs. Allen Askew. Miss Judy Haberlach presided at the guest book and Mrs. George Anderson, Mrs. Gordon Longmore and Mrs. Don Korte were at the gift table.

After a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, the couple are making their home in Sandy.
