

"Making the Sandy Scene"

Kathleen O'Brien

MU 7-4063

Sandy has had one big grand opening since the highway has been completed -- the changes made have been many. And, with the changes have come celebrations, door prizes and lucky winners.

At Al Moore's Big Chisel "Buck-A-Roo" drawing last Monday, Betty Griffith drew out the following winning names for gift certificates on merchandise in the store: Wilma Meyer - $5, Mabel Searls - $4, Mrs. M. Kersting - $3, M. C. Lamb - $2, and Carl M. Johnson - $1. The winner of two tickets to a Buckaroo hockey game was E. V. Larsen.

Winners last Saturday at the new 3 Boys Market were announced as: Mrs. G. Blakely - Sunbeam electric frypan; Mrs. W. Howard - Sunbeam electric knife; Mrs. Hilda Fetter - Sunbeam electric toaster; and Robert Epperson - baseball glove. Aye and Ginny Brewer ended their Grand Opening with many winners, including the following: Lenora Eri - necktie; Kathy Searls and Harriet Day - T-shirts; Erma Boothby, Jim Rossi and Connie Hutton - yardage; Mrs. James McCormick and Faye Vollmer - Levis; Esther Lump, Mrs. Schlotmann, Mrs. Arthur Woodcock and Sara Berger - ash trays; and Mrs. George Kent - serving plate. Winner of manicure sets were Frances McLain, Myrtle Tooley, Mrs. Michael Jennings, Mrs. Bryce Cain, Mildred Audis, Rita Sheppard, C. A. Perkins, Virginia Dobson, Marjorie Becker and Helen Proctor.

Other winners at Brewster's: Mrs. Ralph Clement - the oil painting; Mary Whitlock - electric ice crusher; Mrs. Maurice Williams - towel set; Mrs. Charles Lewis - sweater; Jeanne Danzuka - ceramics; Lila Leathers - electric blanket; Beverly Johnson - salad set; Mrs. Frisco - pin cushion; Vivian Bell - casserole set; and Esther Collier - a purse.

And . . . don't give up hope, some of the prize-winning drawings continue into next week. You, too, might yet be a winner.

Since Dave Graves got his driving license, he has been forming his friends that he will soon be "taking a 7-year vacation trip to the islands, and I will even have a small monthly income to spend as well!" Optimist!

Richard and Nadine York celebrated their 27th wedding anniversary on Feb. 2nd. Their daughter, Trudy, celebrated her birthday on Feb. 1st.

An error corrected: the winner of the sweater at Brewster's last weekend was Lee Englesby, not his father, as mentioned. Otherwise the incident was written as it happened. Oh well, that is what errors are made for. I am told . . . my spoiled girl.

There are some "shocking" things happening at our Clackamas County Bank! Fred Proctor handed Donna Wyatt a document recently, and they both received a shock from the contact. Understand these "electrifying experiences" following the concert Ron Johnson (of the Show-Bawlers) acting as master of ceremonies.

Sandy's Dance Band accompanying the Pioneers in a song for visiting their members. . . "Oh we ain't got a barrel of money, maybe we're ragged and funny" sang the Pioneers all in costumes accordingly. A Dave Whitlock attired in a barrel - Phil Hayes wearing a red polka-dotted sling on his arm. . . Mrs. Chas. Dempsey owner of the Show-Bawlers in a much applauded number. . . Talent evident in folk singing, poetry reading, group singing, and the program ending with someone just again this year and played it would work out a plan under which the trees would be planted.

The Council promised its assistance after the Garden Club had earlier sought a solution to the problem of having the trees die from lack of a regular watering schedule last summer. A committee from the club appeared before council last week at the request of Mayor Stafford Dowsett and the council, following a letter from the club seeking a solution to the watering problem.

The Gresham City Council last week encouraged the Gresham Garden Club to continue with its tree planting project again this year and pledged it would work out a plan under which the trees would be planted.
