SANDY

The Sandy Mountaineers buried Parkrose Heights under a 18-2 first quarter scoring spree and gunned down the win-less Bronchos Friday, 50-21.

Coach Stavros's Mountaineers had three men in double figures as the Mountaineers total was well divided.

Roger Williams and Randy Huserik led the scoring for Sandy with 13 points apiece and Brent Peterson added 10 points.

Don Waritz chipped in 7 for the hapless Bronchos.

Women Bowlers Place In State Tourney

Final results of the State Women's Bowling Tournament which began last November in Coos Bay and ran into January of this year, shows keggers from Mt. Hood Lanes placing in all classes.

Audrey Colson gained top honors in the Sandy contingent, capturing 3rd place in Class C singles with 548. Also finishing in the Class C singles money at the Bay Bowl, site of this year's tournament, were Grace Lamb, 56th-525; Marie Motejl, 109th-490 and Lois Leavitt and Violet Markwell each with 470 to tie for 239th place.

In Class C doubles, June Redfern and Violet Markwell were 128th with 919 while in Class C all events, Violet Markwell was 60th with 1430, Marie Motejl with 1401 and Lois Leavitt, 123rd with 1400. Cherie Hartke's 478 was 29th in Class D singles and she teamed with Kay Metzger in Class D doubles for 6th place with 926. Placing in Class D all events were Cherie Hartke, 8th --1393; Kay Metzger, 138th --1287; Grace Lamb, 186th --1374 and Audrey Colson, 250th --1353.

Finishing 117th in Class B all events was Betty Hartman with 1472 and rolling 2292 in the Class B team event, the All Coast team of Jo Lewis, June Redfern, Violet Markwell, Betty Hartman and Barbara Langlois netted 45th place.

Ruby Rogers' Class A Riviera Motors team placed 8th with 2565 and paired with Virginia Mann in Class A doubles topped 1035 pins for 11th place.

Tournament Names District Finalists

The completion last Sunday of the first round of the Bowl Down Cancer tournament at Mt. Hood Lanes found 12 women and 9 men winning their way into the district finals to be held at Gateway Lanes.

Those local bowlers winning the chance to compete for the big prizes offered in the annual fund raising contest are: women -- Angie Drum, Verna Davis, June Snyder, Glenda Linn, Christy Indahl, June Redfern, Edna Rohde, Sylvia Esperson, Mildred Linn, Sue Pursel, Cleo Gagner, and Elsie Purcell; men -- Stan Esperson, Carl Slater, Larry Brooks, Cliff Savaria, George Smith, Curly Rohde, Garlan McCulloch, Herb Sandercock and Leroy Anderson.

The entire Sandy squad will bowl the district matches at Gateway Lanes Sunday, Feb. 20, at 5 p.m. One out of every eight semi-finalists will qualify for the state finals to be held March 5 and 6 at Columbia Bowl.

Lou Langlois, Sandy area chairman for the Bowl Down Cancer drive, reported an large turn out for the tournament, with one league, the Monday Night Mixed, participating 100 per cent and 202 total entrants. In funds raised, $229, Mt. Hood Lanes was second highest in the state for 8-lane houses, Langlois said. He states that Sandy bowlers have an excellent chance to win some of the merchandise prizes that have been donated for the tournament. Prizes include two Volkswagens, a color TV, Stereo phonograph, washing machine, clothes dryer, etc.

There are more than 3,000 meat processing plants in the U.S.
