

THE Sandy Post

Vol. 28

SANDY, OREGON, THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 1966

No. 8

THIS 1940 PHOTO from the old dusty file is that year's group of the Sandy Women's club. Brought to the Post, one of the members thought the picture would provoke much comment, for many of the women in the picture are still Sandy residents.

Girl Scouts Have Court of Awards

A Court of Awards was held on February 21 to recognize achievements of members of Sandy's Junior Girl Scout Troop #378. Awards were made in ten categories, each badge symbolizing that its recipient has done the things it stands for "often enough, thoroughly enough, and well enough to be prepared to give service in it."

Mothers who acted as badge counselors were, Mrs. Nicholas Roth, Hospitality; Mrs. Albert Garber, Cook; and Mrs. Wallis Hoffarth, My Community.

Scouts receiving badges were: Hospitality - Donna Allison, Debra Gunderson, Cheryl Koehler, Gayle Paluck, Karen Roth, Carol Sheldon, Beverly Watkins and Laurie Welsen.

Cook - Lanna Allgeier, Vona Brinkley, Elizabeth Garber, Carole Hoffarth, Joan Kalahan, Debra Vedder, Betty York, Glenda Williams and Shandi Inman.

My Community - Cathy Koehler and Pam Martin.

Cyclist - Susan Copper, Cathy Koehler, Cheryl Koehler, Carol Sheldon and Debra Vedder.

Sign of the Arrow - Susan Copper.

Sign of the Star - Susan Copper.

Collector - Betty York, My Camera - Carol Sheldon, My Home - Carole Hoffarth and Shandi Inman.

Pen Pal - Susan Copper. After the awards ceremony a party was held for the girls and their mothers.

Extra activities for the troop, which is led by Mrs. Ray Sheldon, include a swimming and skating session each month.

Girl Scout Cookies will go on sale from March 24th through April 9th. Grandma's Cookies will be featured this year. Profits from the annual cookie sale are used to maintain the Council's summer camps. Each troop receives five cents per box for their own treasury.

Sandy's Junior Troop #378 has voted to use their cookie sale profits to start a "Flag Fund" to buy textured American flags for the Oral Hull Foundation Camp. Each flag costs $15 and the camp can use several. A car wash is planned later in April to add more to this fund.

SUHS 'Buckshots' Sing in Ballad Contest

The 20th Annual Original All Northwest Barber Shop Ballad Contest took place last weekend in Forest Grove (Ballad Town, U.S.A.).

Sandy High School's "Buckshots" consisting of Lee

Eblen, lead; David Whitlock, tenor; Gary Fox, baritone; and Mike Stewart, bass; were the only group entered from a high school. Other singing groups in the competition were: Stockadeers and Van-Chords from Vancouver, Wash.; The Rose City Four, Squires Four and Harbor Lads from Portland; Jesters and Carriage Trade from Seattle; Bay Shore Four from Coos Bay; Topnotchers from Salem and McMinnville; Rising Sons from the Far East; The Villains and Par-4 from Kirkland, Wash.; the Moonlighters from Bellevue, Wash.; and the Gem Dandies from Boise, Idaho.

The program, centered around the "Good Old Songs" theme, and the Barbershopera. The schedule of events began with the printed notation: "Don't forget to extinguish the lantern on your carriage," and featured can can dancers, banjo players, quartets and Gay Ninety bands. The audience was also given the following instructions in the printed program: "We invite your enthusiastic applause and rousing cheers for these talented entertainers. However, the Cop on the beat has been instructed to bodily remove from the pavilion those who interrupt the performance with unbridled merrymaking." At the end of the printed program were these words: "This concluded this season's current endeavor. We welcome any and all favorable comments. When leaving be sure to drive your rig carefully and be sure to watch old Nell when you hitch up, as she probably will be foxy as Dan Patch."

The Buckshots were the fifth group to sing Friday night - all attired in appropriate buckskin, with coonskins caps and guns. They chose "Somebody Stole My Gal" and "The Colorado Trail" for their selections.

In the audience from Sandy were Mr. and Mrs. Roger Stewart with Margie and Diane Stewart, and Sandy High School's choral director, Tom Lewis.
