

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

MRS. MASON'S 1ST GRADE

Our room enjoyed making "Robots" out of egg cartons. We glued on the arms and antennae, made weird looking eyes and faces, and painted them all colors. They looked like little robots from space. Our next art project will be working with clay. (sh sh! for Mother's Day.)

We enjoy our new Math books. Some pages are hard to work, but they do make us think. In our contest in addition and subtraction Chris Roth is the champion. The girls are studying hard so they will be winners next week.

Spring is here! We know it! We know it! For our science lessons we are bringing in signs of spring. So far we have daffodils, camellias, crocuses, and forsythia. Many birds are around the lawn. A grosbeak hit our window and was stunned for a while, then he flew away. Many buds and leaves are coming out. Best of all we enjoy the sunshine so we can go out side and play.

BAND

The Sandy Elementary Jr. High Band was host to the Estacada Jr. High Band in an exchange concert on March 29. The guest band under the direction of Mr. Joe Barr played first followed by the Sandy Band under the direction of Mr. W. Fred Proett.

During intermission music was provided by Sandy clarinet quartet: Janice Baker, Elaine Chatelain, Julie Asakawa, and Bobbi Kubin; Brass Sextet: Steve Christensen, Kerry Steiner, Brent Peterson, Debbie Deason, George Culp and John Johnson.

A return exchange concert will be held at Estacada in May.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Denhart of Sandy announce the engagement of their daughter, Pamela, to Gary Reich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Reich of Sandy.

Pam, a graduate of Parkrose Senior High, is now attending the University of Oregon X-Ray Technology school.

Gary is a graduate of Sandy Union High school and attended Multnomah College before joining the U.S. Air Force. He is currently on one month's leave before going overseas.

No date has been set for the wedding.

KNIT-KNACKS
BY Debbie Gunderson

We are pretty well on our way. Teri Martin and Jenny Oldenburg had birthdays in February. Debbie Gunderson is just starting. For our roll call we make up different things to say. We say different ones each week. Here are some: The kind of food we like, kind of food we don't like, or your birthday.

Charla Loundree, Shirlee Martin, Teri Martin, Debbie Gunderson and Jenny Oldenburg are knitting sweaters.

We give demonstration meetings. Teri Martin demonstrated how to cast on with two needles. Debbie Gunderson demonstrated how to make knitting baskets for holding knitting tools and yarn. We didn't have a meeting during spring vacation.

Two Women Grab Man's Wallet

A 36-year-old Eagle Creek junk dealer, J. C. Whitehurst, told Portland police he was assaulted and robbed of about $420 by two women in northwest Portland.

Whitehurst said he was walking on N. W. 4th Avenue near Burnside Street when the women pulled him into a doorway and took the money after grabbing hold of his wallet, which was chained to his clothing.

OBITUARY

Funeral services were Wednesday, March 30 for Mrs. Mildred M. Webb, former Portland resident who died Friday at her home in Fairbanks, Alaska. Services were in Caldwell's Colonial Mortuary, with entombment in Lincoln Memorial Mausoleum.

Mrs. Webb was born Feb. 25, 1912, in Portland, and was educated in Portland schools and at Oregon State University. For the last 20 years she resided in Fairbanks, where she was manager of a title and trust company.

She is survived by the widower, Richard; sons, Richard Jr. and Jack; and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Lucas, Sandy.
