"Making the Sandy Scene"

Kathleen O'Brien

Sandy was represented at the Eastmoreland Easter Parade on April 2. Edith Updegrave was one of the riders in the Westernettes, the winning all-girl drill team taking first place in the "mounted group" division. Edith and her daughter, Gladys, have been riding with the Westernettes since 1951. She mentioned that anyone interested is welcome to watch practices. They are held each Tuesday from 8 to 10 p.m. at The Hitching Post, 162nd and Foster.

A wedding uniting J.W. Brown and Pernella Gertrude Adams, both of Lane County took place in Sandy last Saturday. Judge George Howeller performed the ceremony.

Gib and Rita Oldenkamp recently sold their Sandy home. They will be moving to Mollala near the end of May.

Weekend birthdays: Diane Persons and Gwennona Cook celebrated birthdays on Saturday--Mrs. Harvey Schneider and Midge Jonsrud celebrated birthdays on Sunday.

Lucky winners in Williams' Thriftway's drawing last weekend: Mary Cooper won the vacation trip for two to the Oregon Coast; Mrs. Lonnie Higgins received the electric slicing knife; and Kathy Walters had the lucky ticket on the electric tooth brush.

The family of Bruce and Madalyn Opperman planned a special party in honor of their parents 28th wedding anniversary last Monday, April 11. An early anniversary celebration found Bill and Diane Dyal, Ralph and Ginny Hames, and Bruce Madalyn Opperman going out for dinner last Saturday night at the Chinese Gardens.

Another recent anniversary drawing the family together was last weekend's celebrations for Frank and Joyce Marcy's 25th wedding anniversary on April 13th. In addition to Milt and Tim Marcy in Sandy, Sharon Marcy flew home from Wichita-Denise Simons and her son, Jeffery, came in on a Colorado Springs flight. There were 25 guests at the Marcy table at Obie's Restaurant Saturday night, and many more friends dropped by to visit the Marcys on Sunday.

devote to your children"... Make sure the Dinner is in your schedule--let's make the effort to show our high school students that we are interested in their activities.

A recent Oregonian item of interest here - 25 Cottrell grade school students in the winter survival class taught by Odd Bjerke, showed through the woods on Mt. Hood and stayed overnight on the mountain. The school group was headed by teacher Linda Shockey, a graduate of the wilderness survival school, Linda, a 1955 Sandy graduate, taught at Sandy High last year.

Seen in Passing: Donna Wyatt mentioning that she and her dad didn't catch any fish on a recent excursion, but they did both manage to catch the same salamander on their hooks. Tom Dyal flew home for Easter--he's stationed at Treasure Island near San Francisco. Howard Berger putting signs around town advertising the Mom and Dad's Annual Dinner. Easter bonnets getting wet on Sunday. Wendy Sue Radar, Bob Lewis and Nancy Carmony celebrating birthdays on Monday. Bea Harris and Leita Schmitz home from Honolulu.

A birthday party on April 5th honored twins, Karen and Kristi Opperman, on their 8th birthday. Guests included: Sue Ann LeVan, Debbie Hite, Patty Fussell, Patty Searls, Gayle Cook, Julie Wilson, Cheryl and Karen Jackson, Donna Dyal, Becky Sharver, Donna Bernhardt and Nancy Carmony.

Current news of Bruce and Madalyn Opperman's family: Gary and Charlene Opperman are building a new home at Cherryville; Gary works for P.G.E., his wife, Charlene, is a 3rd grade teacher at Sandy Grade School, David, his wife, Sharon, and their son, Davey 2, plan to move to Estacada, since David works in a mill there. Bob is a sophomore at O.C.E., planning his future as a high school english or history teacher. Vicki is a senior this year at Sandy high, Michael, 9, is in the 3rd grade, and twins, Karen and Kristi, are presently in the 2nd grade. In addition to their own children, the Oppermans have four foster daughters: Patty Mathews, a sophomore who has been with them for nearly 6 years; Connie O'Doherty, a junior; Esther Briston, a senior, and Shirley Stewart, a sophomore. If any parent thinks one or two high school-age daughters makes it next to impossible to get on the telephone, just think of the Oppermans -- they have 5 high-school age daughters at the present time!

I must mention some of the very clever campaign posters seen this week on Sandy High walls. I am not endorsing any candidate by so doing, just applauding the clever art work and slogans: "We're boostin' Houston", "Us Jennifer voters would rather fight than switch", "String along with Stewart" (this is singing Mike's slogan), "You can't go wrong if you vote Strong", "Everything's coming up roses by voting for Signs" (this sign was adorned with artificial flowers), and some very clever take-offs on comic strips--a number of Peanuts characters seen around the hall.

And a closing take-off from the Wizard of Id comic: the common people are appealing to the King "When are you going to do something for us?" The King looking out from his balcony said: "As soon as you vote for Verdoorn for Business Manager!" Time was limited--but the ideas and clever campaign slogans have not been.

Historical Group Meets

Historical or pioneer-day quilts, with a story are especially wanted by the society for the display. Grade School News

Mrs. Miller's science table is looking very productive all of a sudden. The children have planted beans, soy beans, and corn. They are all growing, and we are watching them each day. We also water them as soon as we get to school.

We have had some bulbs that we have watched grow. Marshall Glos brought us a daffodil, planted and ready to bloom. Marc Stauffer brought some tulip bulbs which will bloom soon.

Daniel O'Harrow had an interesting salamander for us to watch. We do enjoy our science projects.

Everyone in our class is reading "Up and Away." We like the stories, and they are fun to read.

Our modern math is progressing rapidly. We are busy learning combinations right now. They are hard for many of us, but some of us can really say them fast. We are also studying the number line.

For our health lesson last week we had a film on "Why We Should Eat Vegetables." It was very interesting. After seeing the film, we wrote our own stories about it. Now Mrs. Miller thinks we will eat our vegetables every day for lunch.

FAMILY GATHERING

The G. L. Bell home at Cherryville was the scene of a family gathering Easter Sunday. Here for the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Comstock family, Redmond; the Leonard Morgans, Gresham; Wm. Bell family, Salem; Mrs. Olive Brown, Allen King, Mrs. A. W. Easton and Jan Beau.

If you feel neglected and want to feel "missed", walk by several of our local establishments late at night and you will find the signs advising you: "Closed. Sorry we missed you!"

I shared my April 12th birthday with Faye Beach, Gretchen Chilton and Barbara Boothby.

Other current news of the McDonald family: Loretta McDonald, a 1958 graduate, is a nurses aid at Rest Harbor Sanitarium near Pleasant Home. Gary (a 1960 graduate), his wife Montell, and their 5 month old son, Sandy Farris McDonald, live in Portland; Gary works for Dallas-Smith at Tigard, doing front-end alignments on new cars brought here by railroad for dealers. Richard McDonald works at Oja Lumber in Sandy. Donna and Delores McDonald completed their final two years of high school at Washington High in Portland, following the family's move from Sandy. Donna is presently taking I.B.M. training, while working part-time at Belmont Pharmacy in Portland. Delores has a clerical job at Central Bowl.

Frances Bogart, Olin Big-nall and David Bernhardt were all a year older last Wednesday.

Shirley Dyal mentioned that Mrs. Lee Campbell, Mrs. Oregon 1965, is the featured speaker at the Christian Women's Club Luncheon scheduled for 12 noon Thursday, April 21, at Eastmont Lanes in Gresham. Everyone is welcome, although reservations should be made by Wednesday, April 20. For further information, call Shirley Dyal, MU 7-6851.

Dorothy Edes and Debra Gunderson celebrate their birthdays today.

Howard and Sara Berger, Bob Gulvin, Chuck and Frances Croston, Louis and Dorothy Phelps, John and Lucile Christensen, and Betty Brook met together last Monday night to play the Mom and Dad's Annual Award Dinner. Mark your calendar now - it's Saturday, May 14th at 6:30 p.m. The dinner and awards presentations are expected to last until 9 p.m., but a well-voiced thought Louis Phelps mentioned is worth repeating: "2 1/2 hours once a year is not very much time to
