"Making the Sandy Scene" Kathleen O'Brien MU 7-4063

Two more recent weddings performed by Judge George Howeller: William J. VanBuren and Linda L. Rutan, both of Multnomah County, were married Saturday, July 2nd, Loren Douglas Braim, of San Francisco, Calif. and Sylvia Christine Braim, of Estacada, were married in a double-ring ceremony July 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Bernard, with Jean, Helen and Bruce, have recently returned from a trip to the Wallowa Mountains, Hot Point overlooking Hell's Canyon of the Snake River, and Dry Falls, Wash. They ended their vacation at the Oregon Beaches.

Sign seen on the bumper of a blue corvair driving through Sandy: "I love my Corvair!"

Clamming at Copalis Beach in Washington over the July 4th weekend were members of the Scheel family: Ed and Opal Scheel of Sandy, Lee and Janet (Scheel) Harding with Jill and Joey, of Aloha; Ron and Joyce Adams with Lynn and Scotty, of Portland; and Bill and Phyllis Bradley with Stephen and Gary of Portland. Mrs. Scheel's son, Bill Bradley, is Manager of the Vancouver office of Singer's.

The electric guitar and drum sounds issuing over the sound of traffic in the vicinity of Western Auto Store last Monday afternoon were pinpointed to a group of budding musicians practicing on the roof of Carl and Sadie Klein's garage.

Happy Birthday today to Cleo Earley and Emily Woodward and a Happy Anniversary to the Ron Long's!

Robert and Barbara Ziemer and their son Donald, now live in Lexington, Kentucky, following a move from Oregon, June 7. Robert graduated from Oregon State in 1965 with a degree in agricultural engineering.

David and Barbara Ziemer now live in Gresham, David works for Alcoa Aluminum in Vancouver. They have one son, Tommy.

Earl and Marie Drew, with Susan and Martha, spent the July 4th weekend at Bellingham visiting Bob and Beverly (Drew) Kindley and their daughter, Lisa. They returned via Whitby Island, taking the time to gather fresh clams and oysters from the Puget Sound waters.

I've heard some students say they are unable to find work in this area -- seems to me, that if they wanted work bad enough and were willing to actually "work", they might be employed. Here are some of our local students who have found employment this summer: Mike Stewart is working at Firwood Veneer Plant, Myrna and Melva Richey, Kathy Searls, and Loraine Townsend are working at Hudson House cannery, Jan Gulvin is a waitress at the Satellite Restaurant at Stark and Burnside, Diane Lindsay, Diane Stewart and Carol Houston are picking raspberries, Lee Eblen works in a nursery, Larry Verdoorn is a salesman for Watkins, Cheryl Hames is employed at the Day

Care Center, Leslie Jonsrud works at Janz Berryland.

Martha Drew is typing for the Oral Hull Foundation, Cliff Heddon is cleaning in a hospital in Portland, Laurie Jonsrud is sweeping floors, "anything", this summer, to earn extra funds, Sally Amstad is a cook at St. Jude's Home in Sandy, Barbara Kitchen and Janice Hartson work at Sandy Resail.

Employed at Dea's Drive In are Pat Colson, Diane Persons, Diane Pullen, Chris Buegg, Shari Miller and Glenn Shepard. Barbara Croston is working at the High School. LeeAnn Eklund and Sally Dyal are with Seenic cannery. The Sandy Big Chief employs Wayne McCurdy, Laurie Nelson is picking berries, Nancy Hite, Martie Hanson, Greg Hill, Vernon Rogers, Diane Blaisdell, Mary Anderson and Connie Berger are among the employees at Bowman's Golf Course.

Dino's Drive In employs Marsha Rice, Judy Jonsrud, Judy Traxler, Clara Prater, Jodi Glass, Pat Burg and Carl Caba. At Waltmire's Golf Course are Art Schaeffer, and Joyce and Gayle Waltmire, Hilde Olds is clerking for Penney's, Kirby Tharp works for Shell, Robin Smith works at Chevron, Paul Moore works at Shell, Dennis Traxler works at Bonneville Dam.
