Cottrell Doings

The home of Margaret Paluck was the scene of a baby shower for Dawn Lundy Kennedy and her two week old son, Todd last Friday evening. Many beautiful gifts were received. Hostesses were Mrs. Margaret Paluck, Mrs. Goldie Sandblast, Mrs. Hazel Gregus and Mrs. Lizzie Breen.

Cottrell ladies aid will have a picnic dinner at noon on Wednesday, Aug. 3, at the home of Joy Namhie. Everybody welcome.

legislation. The college president urged Chamber members to contact their elected officials and request them to oppose such a proposal. "We should train these young people who want to be nurses right in their own communities and not restrict such training to only three sites in the entire state," he said.

4-H Gardeners Schedule Tour

Clackamas County 4-H Horticulture members and leaders will visit three farms in the Canby area on Friday, July 29, as a part of their annual Field Day.

Places to be visited during the morning are the Ray Leach Holly and Blueberry farm, M.J. Cereghino & son Vegetable farm, and Swan Island Dahlias. In the afternoon, the group will meet at the county fairgrounds in Canby for the county flower and vegetable judging and identification contests and the flower arranging contest.

Mrs. Grace Still, Barton, will serve as judge for the arrangement contest and be in charge of flower judging and identification. Jack Parsons, County Extension Agent will be in charge of the vegetable judging contest.

The afternoon program will also include instruction in selection and preparation of flower and vegetable exhibits for the County Fair, according to Harold Black, County 4-H Extension Agent.

Community Church Scene of Wedding

In an afternoon ceremony, June 11, at the Sandy Community Presbyterian Church, Sandra Elaine Deming and Vernon Warren Rush Jr. were united in marriage.

Two baskets of yellow and white gladiolus, accented with large yellow bows, decorated the altar as Rev. Edward Neuenfeldt performed the double-ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Deming of Sandy, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon W. Rush Sr. of Mill City. Mrs. Clarence Lithio was organist.

The bride's nieces, Debbie and Bev Annis, dressed in short yellow linen dresses, lighted the candles. Her nephew, Donnie Vedder, lighted the altar candles.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore a floor-length gown of silk lined with empire styling. Heavy lace accented the train, and the short full sleeves of the dress. Her white bouffant illusion veil was held by a lace pillbox headress. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and white roses.

Matron of Honor was Mrs. Judy Mills, of Amity. She wore a yellow linen floor-length gown with lace accented the empire waistline. Illusion veil attached to a ribbon bow formed her headpiece. She carried yellow spider mums tied with yellow bows.

The four bridesmaids, wearing moss green gowns, identical in style to the matron of honor, carried white carnations accented with green ribbons. The bridesmaids were Miss Judy Devecka, of Government Camp; Mrs. Shelly Paetz, of Riddle; the bridegroom's sister Miss Vicki Rush, of Mill City; and Mrs. Jerri Booth, of Portland.

Lloyd Mills, of Amity, was best man. Ushering the guests to their places were Gary Paetz, of Riddle; Tom Rush, of Mill City; Wes Nickodemus, of Ashland; and Tom Lucas, of Salem.

The bride's sisters, Mrs. Dwayne Vedder and Mrs. Marian Annis, cut the tiered wedding cake at the wedding reception held in the church social hall. Yellow roses and green leaves decorated the cake, in keeping with the color scheme chosen for the wedding.

Miss Alice Torgerson poured coffee, while Miss Doris Miller served punch. Mrs. Joan Nickodemus was in charge of the guest book, while Miss Mari Anne Annis (the bride's niece) was in charge of the gift table.

Out-of-town guests included: Mrs. Elsa Hartmann, of Vashon, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bressy, of Vancouver, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Art Deming and Mrs. Marlys Bradley of Gresham, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Deming of Battleground, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ryan, of Richland, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Pennwright, Mrs. Eloise Murphy and Rebecca, and Mrs. Gladys Sims of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. John Herzog and boys of Moses Lake, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed King, of Custer, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Tripp of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harvie of Sweet Home, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moritz of Tigard.

The ne Mrs. Rush chose a pink suit with black patent accessories for her going-away outfit.

Following a wedding trip to the Oregon Coast, the couple are now at home at 800 N. 7th, in Stayton. In September they will return to Oregon State University. They will both graduate next June as elementary education majors.

Quinn Family Has Reunion

Visiting for three weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Quinn on Rt. 2, Sandy, have been their two daughters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Riggins of Anchorage, Alaska, and their daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smith of Susanville, Calif., and their three children.

The Quinn daughters have been enjoying the reunion with their parents as well as with their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Quinn, also of Sandy.

This was the first time in eight years that the brother and sisters had been together. Unable to be home for the reunion was Felix Quinn, who is on duty with the Air Force in Tallahassee.

Nell's Notes

By NELL HOWE Hood-Land Reporter

A big welcome to Jim and Diane Weddle, new members of the Hood-Land area. They are living down by Harold McLean in one of his houses. Jim is employed at Timberline Lodge.

I was interested to note that quite a few Governors of the Realm, are readers of Playboy Magazine. While reading through the letters to the editor, was a bit surprised to find one in response to an article, headed read in Playboy, in regards to capital punishment. Just never knew who reads what, anymore. Myself, I enjoy Playboy, but I never claimed to be above reading any interesting readable piece of reading. (That was a great sentence!) But somehow I never thought our Governor would be caught reading, a magazine that has been so highly and lowly criticized.

Believe it or not, I went water skiing again, last Sunday, and this time I stood up. Maybe not for long, but I did make it up and went about 100 feet before I was scuttled. I am sure I must have been scuttled by a small piece of water. Wonderful feeling, and I am going again. Can't wait until Dave gets his opportunity to try.

Norm Stauffer and his twin sister Norma with birthdays. Yours truly with a birthday, and also Andy Reckman. Andy and I have celebrated our birthdays together for many years now.

Pat, Andy and daughter Kelly took me out to dinner, and I am sure I gained 10 pounds, and enjoyed every minute of it. So I took Kelly water skiing

Went to Pendleton, last week, to visit David's sister, Mrs. Ruth Wyatt, and family.
