SERVING YOUR INTERESTS IN GRESHAM

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

By KEN BATEMAN

Different people have different attitudes toward people and life. Consider, for example, these two quotes. The first quotes Bishop Sheen who quoted Jean de Rougemont as saying, "If my neighbor is stronger than I, I fear him; if he is weaker, I despise him; if we are equal, I resort to subterfuge. What motive could I have for obeying him, what reason for loving him?"

The second quote is—curiously enough—from an unknown author: "When you're tired and worn at the close of the day, . . . And things don't seem to be going your way, . . . When even your patience has come to an end, . . . Try taking time out and Confide in a Friend. . . . Perhaps he too may have walked the same road, . . . With a troubled heart and a burdensome load, . . . To find peace and comfort somewhere near the end, . . . When he stopped long enough to Confide in a Friend. . . . For there are most welcome a few words of cheer, . . . For some one who willingly lends you an ear. . . . No trouble exists that time can not mend, . . . But to get quick relief—Confide in a Friend."

Two entirely different attitudes. Which do you like best? BATEMAN FUNERAL CHAPEL, 520 W. Powell Blvd., Gresham.

RE-ELECT

DALE HARLAN

STATE REPRESENTATIVE
Position No. 4

1. The newspaper, OREGON STATESMAN of Salem, said on Dec. 29, 1965 of the 1965 Legislative Session: "The Legislative Session saw the emergence of several young legislators, some of whom will be future state-wide office holders and representatives in Congress."

They then named three Republicans and three Democrats including DALE HARLAN of Clackamas County.

2. Doug McKean, THE OREGON JOURNAL political editor, wrote on March 4, 1966: "Harlan, first elected in 1964, received high ranking in his freshman year and served on the Judiciary and Financial Affairs Committee in the 1965 Session. He is a member of the Interim Committee on Public Health."

3. Harlan's record has drawn support and praise from the Farm Bureau, Oregon Education Association, Oregon State Employees Association, Oregon Trucker Association, Police Officers Association, Teamsters, W.C.T.U. and the endorsement of the AFL-CIO.

OBITUARIES

ELIZABETH RUTHER

Elizabeth Ruther, 209 E. Pleasant St., Sandy, died Oct. 25 after a sudden illness. She was born April 6, 1896 in Perham, Minn., and received her education there.

She came west in 1910 and settled in Sandy, where she has made her home since. She married Carl Aschoff in 1917 and he preceded her in death in 1931. She was married Nov. 16, 1940 with Julius Ruther in Port Orchard, Wash.

Besides being a devoted housewife she worked in the Sandy school cafeteria and for her brother in the Schmitz restaurant. She is survived by her husband, Julius; her daughter, Mrs. Edison (Dorothy) Mills, Sandy; two grandchildren; her brothers, Frank and Edward Schmitz of Sandy, and sisters, Mrs. Anna Winters of Sandy and Mrs. Walter (Nettie) Sweek of Portland.

Requiem mass will be offered at St. Michael's church, Sandy, Friday at 10 a.m., with vault interment at Cliffside cemetery. Recitation of the rosary will be at Bateman Funeral Chapel Thursday, 7:30 p.m.

JANE LAUER

Jane S. Lauer, 70, of Sandy died Tuesday, Oct. 18, in a Portland hospital. She was a native of Clatskanie and had lived in Portland most of her life before moving to Sandy 8 years ago.

Survivors include two brothers, Robert Mickelson of Portland and Oscar Mickelson of Astoria, and two sisters, Agnes Erickson of Clatskanie and Josephine Troland of Portland. Funeral services were held Friday at Caldwell's Colonial Mortuary. Private entombment was in Portland Memorial Mausoleum.

Service Lines

Private Venancio V. Panit Jr., 21, whose parents live on Rt. 1, Box 1080, Gresham, completed a six-week lineman course Oct. 21 at the Army Southeastern Signal School, Ft. Gordon.

He was trained to install and maintain open wire and field communication wire. He also received instruction in laying lead and rubber-covered cable.

His wife, Bonnie, lives on Rt. 2, Box 298, Boring.

Army Specialist Fourth Class Richard D. Hassenbrook, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ty F. Correll, 421 Cliff Lane, Estacada, is participating in a three-week communication field training exercise conducted throughout western Germany.

Hood-Land Happenings

By the SNOOPER

Suggestion from Snoop to the Boss-Lady: Why don't you disappear into the hinterlands on Thursdays? You know you just can't win on this day! Even when you try to do a gal a favor it goes sour and you hear about it. Poor "B-L"!

Since Thursdays is Sandy Post day - this is the day columnists scan the paper to see the result of their effort and if any little thing is amiss. . . well naturally the Boss-Lady bears the brunt! She even had a call from Yours Truly this past Thurs., concerning the insertion of some items that were left out of Snoop's #2's (Eileen Anderson) column the previous week.

Normally, we would have been pleased to have items deleted from one week's column (due to lack of space) be inserted into the following column. But in this particular case we were upset because of the untimely item re: "Pappy" Gauke. Naturally, a bad taste was left in many mouths (including mine and Eileen's) to read of "Pappy's" tragic demise at the head of the column and then to find a lighthearted reference to his plans for the winter towards the end of the column. It was unfortunate and we are sorry it happened. . . but at least you know now how it happened!

NOTE TO CHARLES F. JETT (Sandy Post Subscriber of Los Angeles, Calif.): Snoop thanks you for your letter regarding your interest in Hood-Land affairs. I intend to answer it soon and the purpose of this note is to let you know I've not forgotten about it but am merely slow at answering mail. (Incidentally, it is Senator Morse—not Morris - as it was incorrectly spelled on the petitions you refer to.)

NOTE TO LUANN and BILL SWANSON: Best wishes to you as new owners of the grocery store at Brightwood! Although, Bill is already familiar to customers at the store (he managed it for previous owner Al Moore of the Minit Mart chain) he and wife Luann are receiving many wishes of good luck on their new enterprise. They have many plans for the store that customers will appreciate (new paint, Gold Bond stamps, meat cutting, longer weekend store hours, etc.) and Snoop is sure they will be most successful!

NOTE TO SALLY HURLBUTT

(Snoops Grandma?!) No more bed changing for you gal! Those sheets can be downright dangerous! (Our gal Sal caught her toe in one tripped and landed on the floor in a heap. She didn't break anything but is still hobbling about from the fall and has the black and blue marks to prove bed changing just isn't up Sally's alley! Right Grandpa Max?)

NOTES from SNOOPS

SCRATCH PAD:

Sympathy is extended to Eileen Anderson (Snooper #2) on the loss of her aunt, Jane Lauer of Sandy, last Tues. (Mrs. Lauer was the little lady who won the car of groceries at Williams last year.). . . A Going-Away party (to end all, I hear) was held at the Log Lodge for Adrian Shields Sunday night. Adrian left for New York before returning to her job as Ski instructor at Mammoth Mt.

While Frank Curran was on a business trip he visited ex-Hoodlanders Mary and Phil James who now have a 200 acre ranch near Madison, Wis. Welcome to Marie and Wendell Halseth who moved from Seaside to Hood-Land. The Halseths are new owners of the Gate Way Store at Zigzag. (Although I haven't had the opportunity to meet them, as yet, I hear from several sources that they are a dandy addition to the mountain scene!)

A Going-Away dinner party was staged by the Forest Service last Thursday night at the Zig Zag Inn for Diane and Bob Peterson. Bob was transferred to the Columbia Gorge station. Phyllis Sparley left last Wed. to join hubby John at San Diego. Glen Gilbert is back at the Veteran's Hospital for more knee surgery. . . . George Schroeder is another Hoodlander at the Veteran's Hospital. He is awaiting eye surgery.

Another Sunday affair was a party at the Zig Zag Inn in honor of Bettie and John Viles 25 wedding anniversary. John's gift to his bride of 25 years was a beautiful new diamond wedding ring! . . . If you want to perk up an ordinary "Blue-Monday" drop into the Brightwood Tavern next Monday afternoon. Not one -- but five -- birthday gals are due for the "birthday bit" and it should really be something to see! Maxine Hickey is taking over the "cake catastrophe" bit from Ethel Annis as Ethel is one of the guests of honor. The other four are: Georgia Vermaas, Red Swank, Lex Murphy and Luann Swanson.

Margaret Ann Fielding and her guest from Sandy, Marcie Kociemba, attended an affair honoring the wife of the Postmaster General, Mrs. Larry O'Brian and the wife of Wyoming's Senator Gale McGee at the West Linn Inn. . . Margaret Ann also informed Snoop that the Hoodland Democratic Club (still in existence, but inactive) beat the Hoodland Women's Club, Inc. to the draw in eliminating the irksome dash from the Hood-Land title. (I drop the dash whenever possible - just as I did when I dreamed up the "Hoodlanders" tag. I think I dreamed it up, that is, because when I first started writing about this area people were still being referred to as "Highlanders" or "Lowlanders" and it seemed desirable to dub the Highlanders Hoodlanders instead!)

Birthday greetings to our gal Ellie - Blitz that is - who celebrated her day on Wednesday. . . . Condolences to Millie and Bill Gulick and Florence and Frank Simmons who spent a week hunting in the Burns area and came home empty handed. . . . Frankie and John Whitehead spent the weekend with their Hood-Land pals and everyone was delighted to see John out of the hospital and well on the road to recovery after his recent illness. The grapevine tells me John is absolutely sylph-like (Can you believe it?) and he was telling pals he would be ready for golf in a couple of weeks. (Take it easy old boy - don't be losing too much weight - might affect that famous laugh of yours and that would never do!)

In spite of last Thursday's wet and storm weather candidates for the legislature, Ralph Guynes and Roger Martin, along with Clackamas County Commissioner Darrell Jones, arrived at the Lions Hall to speak at the Hood-Land Chamber of Commerce meeting. I understand they presented a very enjoyable and interesting program. Sorry I missed hearing your gentlemen, but I'll make up for it by reading about you!

COMING EVENTS:
Friday, Oct. 28, Log Lodge at Rhododendron, Prize Night sponsored by the Hoodland Women's Club, Inc. Buffet at 6:30 followed by fun and games at 8 p.m.
For those who missed the fabulous buffet Chef Paul Juengling prepared last summer - DON'T MISS this repeat performance! His previous buffet with ice sculptures, decorated Salmon, etc., was the talk of the mountain and I understand he is set to give us an encore. (Paul, incidentally, is pastry chef at the Hilton Hotel in Portland!)

Before leaving the food bit: Snoop is still hearing (in detail) about the terrific Cornish Game Hen dinner at the Mt. Hood Country Clubs annual award dinner a couple of weeks ago. It must have really been something to warrant all the talk! The funny part seems to be that the golf course chef, Armand Buholtz, was on vacation at the time, so credit for the dinner goes to May Reick, Ida Hefner, Cello Tovar and all the rest of Bowman's efficient kitchen help! (Of course, Armand should get credit for having such an excellent staff at his command!)

Saturday night, Oct. 29, is the eagerly awaited Halloween Party at the Zig Zag Inn! From all the excited chat I'm hearing about costumes, prizes, etc. You'd think it was THE party of the year - and for that matter - it very well could be!

Since Snoop will probably still be on the "stay-at-home" list, I'm getting advance word about who is going as what, but only after I promise not to tell. This seems to be the year everyone is planning a complete disguise so no one will guess their identity. (With the amount of enthusiasm about this affair - in advance - I certainly hope someone with a camera will be on deck!)

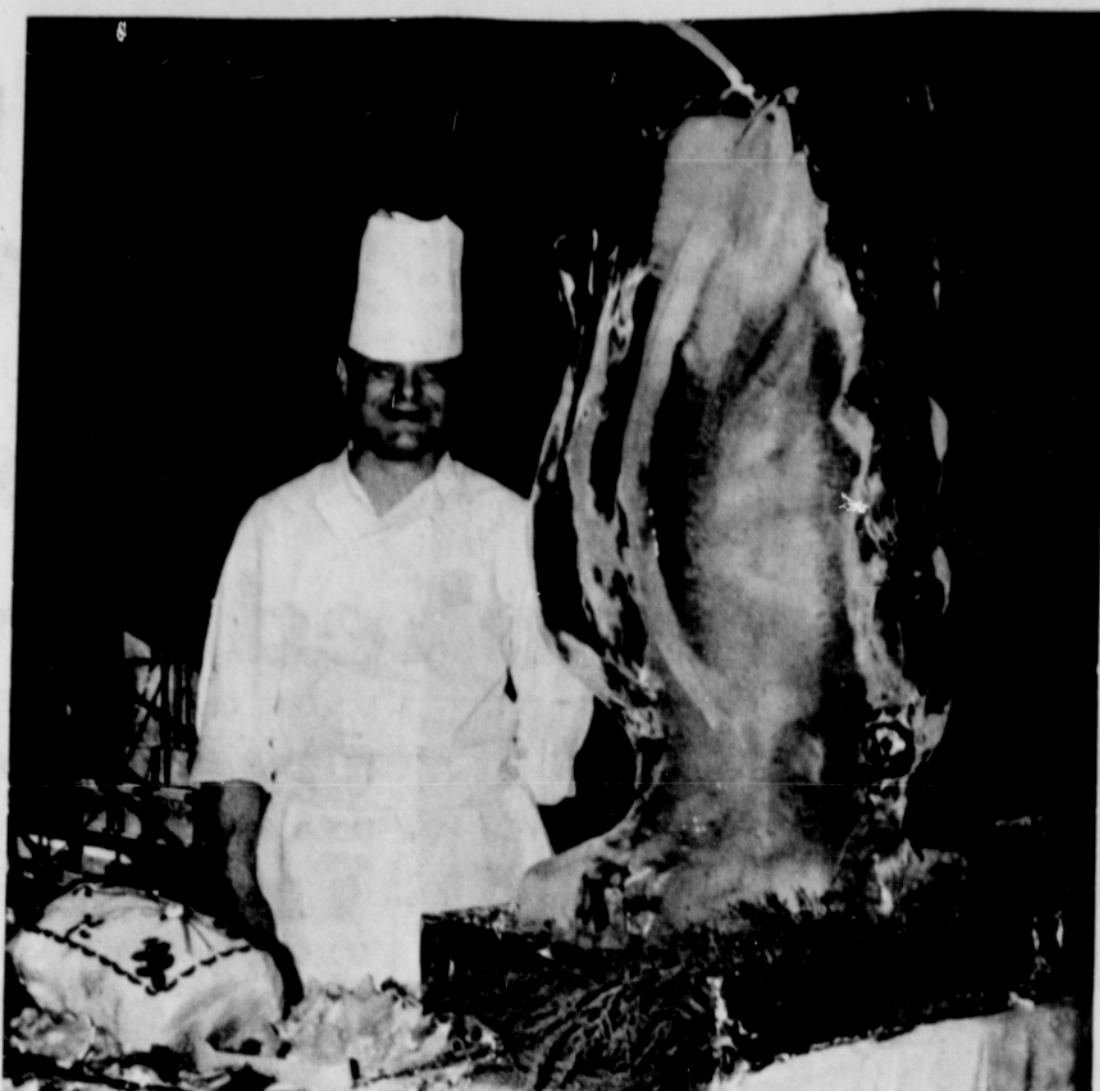

Now that you're set for fun affairs for Friday night and Saturday night - here is an item for something to do on Sunday. A non-denominational church is being started in the former Seventh Day Adventist Church Bldg. at Wemme, Pastor Wayne Thomas will preach Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m., Oct. 30, Pastor Jay Hoffman of Corbett will preach on the following Sunday afternoons. It is called the Hood-Land Christian Church and further details may be obtained by calling Mrs. George (Bessie) Schroeder at 622-4440.

Although, I stated previously that Eileen Anderson and Yours Truly would alternate weeks at column writing, this won't always be the case. For instance, this was to have been Eileen's week, but circumstances deemed it otherwise. (The demise of her aunt.) So to you who seem to want to identify with the writer - we will in the future sign off as Snooper #1 or Snooper #2. (Not only for your sake - but ours as well! I would hate to have Eileen blamed for something I have said and I'm sure she feels the same way!) Not that Eileen ever says anything one can mis-construct - but I sure seem to have a habit of stirring up pots and I wouldn't want Eileen to get her fingers burned because of it!

BYE NOW - #1 SNOOPER

P. S. Would you believe Snoop thinks a "Telephone" party is in order? You know what I mean, a real old fashioned whoopin' it up party to celebrate the end of an era and the beginning of a new one. Have the Sunnyside-Hood-Land officials as guests of honor and invite everyone on the mountain to the celebration. (I think of this every time I pick up the phone - get an immediate dial tone - and dial a number (any number) minus all the agonies of the past.) This is worth a mighty celebration! Agreed! (This is the worst part of being out-of-commission. I can't get past the instigating phase of things!)

Diners at Log Lodge recently enjoyed an unusually regal buffet by Chef Paul Juengling composed a bounty of gourmet specialties. The beautifully decorated menu items surrounded a "swan" centerpiece sculptured from a block of ice by Juengling. Log Lodge owner Bill Spencer says the buffet which preceded a Women's Club 'prize night' was so well received he plans another one in the near future. The regular buffet will be served again tomorrow night at 6:30 p.m., before prize night fun begins at 8.

GRESHAM GROUP ARE GUESTS

Immanuel Lutheran church's Walther League of Sandy will be host to Redeemer's youth group for a Halloween Party Sunday evening, Oct. 30. The party begins at 6:30 p.m.

COURAGE, MARK?

Reprinted from Oct. 6 Ore. Journal

The Dove Still Ducks

Oregon's two candidates for governor, Robert Straub and Tom McCall, will argue issues face-to-face Friday in a televised joint appearance before the Portland City Club. How different from the attitude of Gov. Mark Hatfield, who wants to be elected to the United States Senate. The governor's billboards proclaim "Courage." But Governor Hatfield has ducked literally dozens of invitations to challenge, face to face, the view of his opponent. Rep. view of the U.S. in present course of the U.S. in Viet Nam is grim but necessary. The governor doesn't even talk much about Viet Nam any more. Courage, Mark?
