Lawn Reception Follows Ceremony

A lawn reception at the home of Mrs. Rosalind Browne, Boring, took place for her son and his bride Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allen Browne following their Sept. 10 wedding. The pair was married in a single ring afternoon ceremony at Pleasant Home Baptist church by Rev. Owen Douglass.

The bride is the former Betty Illeen Boone, daughter of Mrs. Verla Boone, Rt. 2, Box 367, Gresham.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Pam Boone as matron of honor and Claire Lee, bridesmaid. Myrtus Reed was best man and Bill Shomaker, Lloyd Hubbard and Lisle Damours seated guests.

Candlelighters were Sally

Hunt and Don Hunt, Linda Cooper was at the guest book.

Wedding music was provided by Annette Altman who sang, "One Hand, One Heart," Yellow and white gladioli decorated the church.

Given in marriage by her brother, Larry Boone, the bride wore an empire A-Line cotton brocade gown with floating back panel. She also wore a shoulder length veil.

Serving at the lawn reception were Mrs. Doris Miller, Leanne Browne, Susan Lorraine and Mrs. June Hunt.

Gresham is the first home of the newlywed Brownes who both attended Gresham high school. He is employed by Freightliner Co.

Bustling Around Boring

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Bader returned last week after a visit with their son and his family in Ephrata, Wash. Daughter Lacabelle Gorde and granddaughters Marsha and Luana had accompanied them to the ranch (where they were involved in a fourth cutting of alfalfa, thanks to sprinkling irrigation), but the girls returned the same week end so the Baders came home by plane.

Colleen Meier came home from Gresham General hospital this week end, a happy occasion for her family who had missed her during three weeks devoted to mending an arm and a dislocated shoulder. She gently discounted the general enthusiasm explaining, "Part of it is because I brought the TV set back with me -- I had it in my hospital room."

Rev. H. James Jenkins was special guest at the Boring Community Methodist church's monthly potluck dinner last Sunday, following morning services. He met with committee chairmen and board members in a special session, charting the course of the church for the coming year.

Mrs. Lucy Boring went to Salem with her youngest sister Friday, and both had dinner with another sister who makes her home in the capital city.

We went to the PI this year and saw Trudi Meier coping with arrangements for the Meier Dairy's display of Brown Swiss. We also saw Wilbur Shutes, who was showing his splendid Arabian in the horse show. But all the truly fine and remarkable displays will never linger as long, nor have the impact to match the sight of two beautifully-coiffured, jean-clad gals back-combing or "teasing" the tails of a couple of Herefords from Wallowa getting ready for the show ring!

Sandy Couple Wed In Evening Rites

MR. AND MRS. GARY DALE OLSEN
(LaDonna Marie Waibel)

In an evening wedding, Sept. 10 at the Sandy Baptist chapel, LaDonna Marie Waibel and Gary Dale Olsen were united in marriage.

Blue and white gladioli floral arrangements, accented with large green bows, decorated the altar as Rev. Harold Fuller performed the double-ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Waibel, of Sandy, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Olsen, of Sandy.

Lighting the altar candelabras were Bill Knapp and Katey Nielson. Katey wore a baby-blue dress trimmed with green.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a traditional floor-length gown of chantilly lace and net, designed with a tiered skirt and tapered sleeves. A floral crown held her fingertip bouffant veil. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds surrounding a large white orchid.

In keeping with the blue and green color scheme selected by the bride, her attendants wore identically styled floor-length gowns - blue roses highlighting the emerald green background of the heavy brocade. Matching brocade bows with blue net veils formed their headpieces. They carried bouquets of white gladioli mixed with blue flowers.

Miss Pamela Benshoof, Sandy, was maid of honor. The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Jane Waibel, of Pleasant Home, and Miss Vickie Opperman, of Sandy, were bridesmaids.

The bride's junior attendants were her sister and brother, Deborah Waibel, wearing a baby blue, lace dress, with headband and veil identical to the other attendants, entered the church dropping rose petals from a white basket. Dale Waibel carried the rings.

Carl Olsen, of Milwaukie, was best man for his brother, Ushers were the bride's two brothers, Jack Waibel, of Pleasant Home, and Terry Waibel, Sandy.

Mrs. Diane Morrison, Portland, sang "Almost There" as the church service commenced. Pastor Harold Fuller sang "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Moira Fuller was organist.

Approximately 200 guests attended the reception in the lower level of the church. The tiered wedding cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Russell Winchester, was cut and served by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Violet Penrose, Portland, and Mrs. Art Benshoof, Sandy.

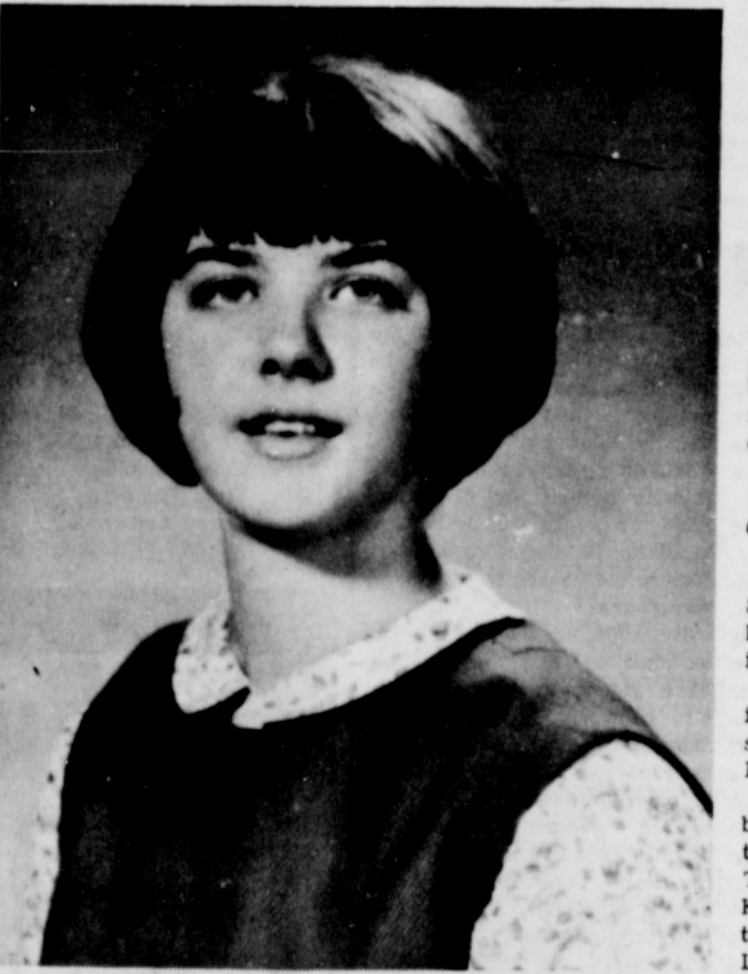

Two other aunts of the bride assisted with the reception. Mrs. Carl Olson of Hopewell, Ore., poured coffee, while Mrs. John Holm, of Sheridan, served punch.

Miss Joyce Waltmire and Miss LeeAnn Eklund were in charge of the gift table. Miss Barbara Holt took care of the guest book.

Rick Bignall and Steve Salisbury helped with the rice favors.

Hostess at the reception was Mrs. Vera Fisher of Sandy. For her wedding trip to the Oregon Coast, the new Mrs. Olsen chose a soft blue, tweed two-piece suit, with pink accessories. The white orchid from her bridal bouquet was her corsage.

The young couple, both Sandy high school graduates is now at home in the Haridon Apartments in Sandy. He is employed at Three Boys' Market in Sandy. She is a student at the College of Beauty in Portland.

ELAINE NILSEN

BPW September Girl of Month

Selection of Elaine Nilsen as of September "Girl of the Month" was announced this week by the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Elaine, a senior at Sandy High School, was chosen for the honor because of her bright quality of friendliness. She is interested in all sports and enjoys playing the piano. Because of a neck injury, Elaine says her activities are necessarily limited. Although she can't participate in sports at present, she enjoys being a spectator.

She is a member of the concert choir, president of the German Club and a student council representative.

Elaine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Nilsen of Boring. She has two older brothers, both married, and an older sister who works in Portland.

After graduation Elaine hopes to continue her education and plans to specialize in the teaching of retarded children.

Juvenile Study Group Formed

Mrs. Margaret Fields, Boring housewife, presided at a meeting held Tuesday, Oct. 18 in Portland of the newly formed "Parents Helping Hand" association, a group of parents, foster parents, attorneys and other persons interested in the problems of juveniles and their families.

Case histories of several families with juvenile problems were discussed at a meeting. Future meetings will be held twice monthly. The public is encouraged to attend. For more information, interested persons may call Mrs. Frank Coupe, 774-4748.
