A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

by KEN BATEMAN

"Mother was a marvelous person." . . . "Dad was a swell guy." . . . "He was a good boy." . . . "She was an angel." . . . "Too bad Dad isn't here; he would have enjoyed . . ."

"If only Mom had lived to see . . ." "How time flies; seems like only yesterday he (or she) was with us." . . .

These and similar words will be heard on Memorial Day when millions of people tread the close cropped sod of cemeteries. The words and thoughts are always with us when we humbly decorate graves with a mixture of respect and regret.

The words and thoughts come to us from the stillness of a grave that somehow seems to whisper of the past. The words and thoughts prove fond memories can never crumble into dust, can never stain or destroy our love for our departed. Far, far more important, the words and thoughts illustrate that the God-given gift of memories proves once again there is eternity in us. We share this eternity in life as well as in death . . .
