A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

by KEN BATEMAN

"Build me a son, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he is weak, and grave enough to face himself when he is afraid; one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat, and humble and gentle in victory. Build me a son whose wishes will not take the place of deeds, a son who will know Thee—and that to know himself is the foundation stone of knowledge. Lead him, I pray, not in the path of ease and comfort, but under the stress and spur of difficulties and challenge. Here let him learn to stand up in the storm; here let him learn compassion for those who fail. Build me a son whose heart will be clear, whose goal will be high, a son who will master himself before he seeks to master other men, one who will reach into the future, yet never forget the past. And after all these things are his, add, I pray, enough of a sense of humor, so that he may always be serious, yet never take himself too seriously. Give him humility, so that he may always remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, and the meekness of true strength."

A soul stirring prayer written by a father for his son. The father? General Douglas MacArthur.

teenth chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, will be reviewed by members this week.

There are at least two occasions when you should keep your mouth shut -- when swimming and when angry.

Thirteen members of the Sandy High Concert band were accepted for the 1968 South Wilco League Honor band.

Students named were Jane Hubbard, second flute; Susan Drew, oboe; Priscilla Jester, first bassoon; Carol Clement, first clarinet (solo); John Snyder, first alto sax; Jim Hill, second alto sax; Brian Boothby, tenor sax; Steve Christensen, second cornet; Bob Rich-ey, third cornet; Debbie Deason, fourth French horn; Mike Lindsey, third trombone; Kerry Steiner, baritone; and Doug Reckmann, baritone sax.

The South Wilco Band Festival will be held Feb. 2 at Canby and will include students from Sandy, Silverton, Canby, Estacada and Molalla.

The South Wilco League Choir Festival is scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 10 at Estacada high school. Concert choirs from Sandy, Canby, Estacada, Molalla and Silverton will participate, and all five choirs will combine for the final portion of the concert.

"When you can think of yesterday without regret, and of tomorrow without fear, you are on the road to success."

Happy Birthday today to Michael Leary and Elton Leavitt. Other recent birthdays -- Jan. 13th -- Helen Swails, Vera Fisher and Sharon Krettinger.

Jan. 14 -- Doc Christie, Jan. 15 -- Carl Sandstrom, Bill Knapp and Chris Hartman, Jan. 16 -- Michael S. Burg, Jan. 17 -- Thomas Dale Chestnut, Martin Sladky and Darly Stapleton.

Sue Hanson, P.E., teacher at Sandy grade school last year, was the guest of honor at a Baby Shower given for her last Saturday night by Dorothy Mills.

The 1967-68 Mee Ma Court of Sandy high; Queen Betty Ann O'Hara and King Gordon Wood; Princess Gaylen Hendricks and Prince Ron Nelson; Princess Sharon Gantenbein and Prince Steve Shultz; Princess Eve McKenzie and Prince Mike Nelson and Princess Signe Hagen and Prince Verle Kuehn.

Failure is like drowning; falling into the water isn't fatal, but staying there is.

Those who complain about income taxes may be divided into two classes -- men and women.

Two Sandy high teachers have hobbies rather unique. Fred Proett, the Band teacher, found an old reed organ in his travels and is putting the organ back into shape. The exact age is not known, but a note left by a tuner was dated 1874. It is an Estey organ. If the band does any work with recorders, the organ will be used. Gary Connelly, arts and crafts teacher, designs and makes medieval styled furniture for his home. He has now made a bed and a davenport. In making the furniture, he uses no nails or glue, but interlocks the wood together. The color scheme of his furniture is black and chinese red, the wood being stained black.

Did you know that by jet measure, the U.S. is now only 5 hours wide and 2 hours deep? "An individual thinks for himself," Sandy High's January Girl of the Month chosen for individuality expressed. He is original, and not completely controlled by society. Each person is an individual in his own way. Everyone must decide his own values and his own goals in life to find out what is best for him." This good advice from Carol Clement, co-editor of the Pioneer Press, President of the Concert Band, and a member of AFS, FHA, Band, Choir, Forensics, and Honor Society, as well as staying on Highest Honors all through high school!

"Dealing with those who hate us is a simple matter. The hippies confront us with the more difficult problem of how to retaliate against love."

With income tax forms arriving in the mail, remember this: "Income tax is like a girdle -- if you put the wrong figure in it, you're apt to get pinched."

Dorothy G. Bernard recently returned from a Retreat Promoters Forum at Our Lady of Peace Retreat House, Beaverton. The Retreat date is July 26, 27 and 28th and is open to "women of all faiths, young, old and in between; particularly those caught in the rush of daily responsibilities, those with pressing family or business problems; those who are confused or unhappy; those who are trying to decide their vocation in life; those who desire to learn more of their faith; those who have thanks to give for special blessings." The Retreat is "48 hours (one weekend) devoted to you, your life, and how to make it a better one. You rest, you listen and you think. You have a comfortable bed, wonderful food, no phone, no TV, you could be a thousand miles away." The Retreat House is surrounded by 600 acres of woods, trees, paths, and quietness. For more information on this Retreat, call Dorothy Bernard at 668-4088.

Mrs. Christina Olson fell on the ice Dec. 19 and broke her arm. She is now convalescing at home following surgery on her foot to remove a growth. Arnold Neumann had surgery on his elbow to repair damage following a fall last Spring. Wishing all a speedy recovery!

Robert Carlson and Jerelyn Wagner were married Dec. 20. Bob returned to Fort Lewis and will soon be leaving for Eustis, Va., for further training.

Lloyd Hanneberg and Mary Turner announced their engagement during the holidays. Mary lives in Estacada and is attending Mt. Hood Community College. Lloyd returned to Fort Rucker, Alabama to complete his training.

Seen in Passing: The Karl Mecklenburg family traveling to Minnesota to spend Christmas with their families. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Maurer spent Christmas in Nebraska visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swartz spent a few days in Klamath Falls over the holidays with their son, Lyle and Cheryl. Frieda Lange went to San Francisco to visit her sister Gertrude and family. Mrs. Richard Suckow visiting her daughter Sharon and Bob Long in Salt Lake City over the holidays. Craig Nakunz returning to Viet Nam. Russ and Cathy (Valberg) Dobson living in a 12 by 60 foot trailer house, 4 miles from Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, where Russ is presently stationed. February 19-23 is AFS Week at Sandy High. Eve McKenzie, Sandy's exchange student from New Zealand, recalling that if she had spent Christmas at home, she would probably have gone camping or picnicing on Christmas, since it's summertime there. And the Christmas dinner of ham or turkey would have concluded with a large plum pudding. Dick and Dee Steffl spending the recent holidays in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, visiting her family.

Everyone has wondered who hit Joe Louis hardest during his ring career. When asked, Joe simply shrugged his shoulders: "That's easy, Uncle Sam!"

I've heard a lot of Texas stories, as I know you have, but this was a new one for me:

A Texan travelling to Alaska took a lot of kidding about the 49th state being the largest. "Alaska certainly is a lot bigger than I'll of Texas," declared a heckler. "Huh!" retorted the loyal Texan. "If this place up here ever thaws out, it'll be smaller'n Rhode Island."

Speech Club Enters Two Tournaments

The Speech Club of Sandy High School is participating in two tournaments this month. The first, a debate, was held at Canby on Saturday and the second will be at Hillsboro on Saturday, Jan. 20.

Participants from Sandy are Pat Barker, Wanda Shaw, Linda Keyser, Doug Reckmann, and Norma Bennett. The tournaments are sponsored by the National Forensic League of which Sandy is an affiliate. A school earns membership in the league by participating in speech tournaments. High Scholastic grades are also a requirement for membership.

The National Forensic League was established 53 years ago. Among its outstanding members are Lyndon Johnson, Richard Nixon and Hubert Humphrey.
