

Hood-Land Happenings

By the SNOOPER

You already know the BIG news for this week - Mike Devecka of Government Camp made the U.S. Olympic ski team! Mike is the first Oregonian ever to compete on an Olympic Nordic team and the first Mt. Hood skier to be appointed to an Olympic team! (Many Hoodlanders - including Snoop - will be glued to their T.V. sets this week hoping to catch a glimpse of this local lad in action.)

WILL THE REAL RUS KONELL PLEASE STAND UP? If I tried to explain why the picture of Rus Konell in last week's Post WASN'T Rus Konell - I couldn't! So I won't! I'll leave the explanations to the Boss-Lady - who probably doesn't have any either! I do know she plans to insert the REAL Rus Konell somewhere in this issue.

Since Rus is a good-natured fellow - I don't think he has really minded the confusion. (Just think, Rus, who else has had their name in the paper as much as you have lately?)

Yours Truly was one of the eight people who attended a meeting at the Lions Hall Sunday afternoon concerning the proposed route of Truman Rd. (To the County it is Truman Rd. - to me and many others it is and always will be North Brightwood Rd. For that matter have you ever heard of Deveny Rd.?) Neither had I. But that is the name the county has for Lolo Pass Rd.!) I listened carefully to the questions asked by the property owners of the area and also to the answers given by County Surveyor, Dexter E. Milne. I gathered there are many individual problems to be ironed out before the hearings by the Board of County Commissioners.

One of the problems that stuck me as being rather sad had to do with the loss of some thirty odd fir trees that are seventy-five years old. The trees are on the property of Len Fuller. Right now the proposed route will eliminate these trees. We are all eager to see our county roads improved - but not at the cost of the natural beauty a land owner takes pride in. Surely there is room for both road improvements and Mr. Fullers 75 year old trees!

For the fourth year in a row the Welches school bus is transporting youngsters to Mt. Hood for ski instruction. Mae Carter is the driver. (I mention this because having a good safe driver is pretty important to us parents and Mae fills the bill!) The bus leaves the school at 8:30 a.m. on Sunday and returns at 4 p.m. The second series of lessons start this Sunday. Children of high school age are welcome to join the group. For information call Luann Swanson or Mary Hollenback.

A used ski equipment sale is being held at Welches grade school, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. If you have outgrown ski equipment at home - put a price on it - take it to school and if it sells - the money is yours!

Many items have been donated by Everett Darr from his lost and found department at Government Camp. The proceeds from the sale of these items will go to the P.T.A.

This is an excellent way to get rid of no longer used ski togs. It is also a very good way to cut the expense of outfitting youngsters with ski gear he will soon outgrow.

SNOOP SCOOPS:

Eleven year old Conrad Hower - the youngest certified ski instructor on the mountain - taught one weekend only - then broke his leg! . . . Michelle Monaghan is home again at Brightwood after a year in the East. . . Leora Beadles of Brightwood has returned from Sun Valley with a great tan. The Bill Fultons of Alder Creek are awaiting the birth of their first grandchild. . . Velma and Joseph Wohlseil of Lake Oswego are the new owners of the Brightwood Tavern. . . Congratulations to Elmer J. Mueller of Brightwood who was married a couple of weeks ago at the Chapel of the Hills.

Grace and Lloyd Karker, who have a lovely new home on the Salmon River, just returned from a two-week trip to Calif. Eileen Anderson and Gay Saunders were hostesses at a baby shower for Jan Strebin at the golf club Tuesday night. Birthday greetings to Gene Claussing, Jane Rupp, Tulla Phelps, Judy Jensen and Bill Anderson.

Irving Youngblood, ex Timberline Lodge Chef, new owner of the Gourmet House at Rhodie, is now open for business - sans a new name! If you have any suggestions pass them on to Mr. Youngblood. Pizza is one of his specialties. . . We have a new Girl Scout Troop in Hoodland and if you would like information regarding the Scouts call Marcell Baessler. . . Velma and Grant DeShazer showed slides of their trip to Ireland at the Monday night meeting of the Hoodland Women's Club. Lovely pics!

Chuck Stewart has good reason to sing the praises of our local fire department - they answered his call in seven minutes and saved his house. . . Jan and Norm Strebin hosted a "Welcome to Rhodie" party for new residents Mr. and Mrs. Curt Campbell. . . James Parker, owner of Hills Place at Government Camp, has been quite ill - don't know if he's still in the hospital or home by now. . . Red haired Marie Halseth was the sensation of the Zig Zag Inn Mardi Gras party when she showed up in a blonde wig!

Local Students Visit College

The Sandy High School Future Teachers of America Club visited Oregon College of Education Saturday. Club advisor, Mr. Frasier, Mrs. Frasier and son Tim accompanied the students. The day was spent listening to model college classes, visiting dorms, and becoming acquainted with OCE.

Bob Opperman (SUHS class of 1964), is the Student Body President at OCE. He and the other Sandy college students going to OCE held a get together for the group.

Sandy high school again had the largest representation at the OCE Preview, and all enjoyed their visit and the opportunity to learn at first hand about college life.
