"Making the Sandy Scene"

Some advice to anybody who wants to make money: Don't Counterfeiting is against the law!

The recently announced 1968 Winter Court at Sandy High School: Jennifer Ruegg as Wrestling Queen, escorted by Rod Harding; Peggy Nagae as Basketball Queen, escorted by Scott Winchester; Princess Verna Carlson, escorted by Bob Flath; Princess Louise Snell, escorted by Tom Croston; Princess Cheryl Bell, escorted by Ron Williams and Princess Sandy Burgess, escorted by Ron Verdoorn.

"Self-discipline is a hard thing to learn. You need self-discipline to learn it."

Terri Anne Hanson, weighing 8 lbs. 1 oz., made her arrival at the Gresham General Hospital, Saturday, Feb. 24. Proud parents are Chuck and Sue Hanson of Sandy. She is a first child for the Hansons and a grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hanson, of Redmond. Maternal grandmother, Mrs. Sue Bartlett, lives in Salem.

Lenna Swails, Worthy Advisor for the Sandy Rainbow for girls, was recently elected by the Gresham-Sandy chapter of DeMolay to be their 1968 DeMolay Sweetheart. She will represent her chapter of Rainbow at the State DeMolay Sweetheart's Ball held at the Holiday Inn March 14.

"Good Night, Mrs. Puffin", a British comedy, has been selected as the senior class play for this year.

Happy Anniversary today to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Esperson and a Happy Birthday to Ricky Hane and Roger Williams!

Well, it is income tax time again and we are reminded that "Prosperity is something you feel, fold and forward to Washington."

Mike Monaghan is home on a week's leave. Judy Taylor spent last week in Emmanuel Hospital for tests. Martha Drew and Randy Drew spent last week end at the beach. David Whitlock sings in the Portland Philharmonic Choir. The Buckshots made a record. Most people need a few more "extra days" like February 29th.

In a recent poll taken at Sandy High School, it was interesting to note that 60% of the girls felt they should be subject to a form of draft, such as nursing or secretarial jobs. Only 38% of the boys were for drafting girls. Seventy-five per cent of the students would march supporting Viet Nam. As for a change in the draft laws, 40% of the boys wanted a change and 50% went along with the present system. However, 75% of the girls at Sandy High felt definite changes were needed in the present draft laws. Sixty per cent of the students support the government's right to draft men for Viet Nam.

I know of several teenagers from 14 to 18 that are already looking for jobs possibilities for summer employment. I would appreciate any suggestions I could give to them on local work so they can earn enough to get their own school clothes for next year.

Did you hear about the father who fainted when his son asked for the garage keys and came out with the lawn mower?
