

"What you don't know never hurts you—it's what you suspect that causes all the trouble!"

While the nation watches the political scene, so do the students at Sandy High but on a much more local level. Final student body officer elections will be held April 19th. Running for the top office of Student Body President are Paul Schaeffer, Mike Cooper and Priscilla Jester. Business Manager candidates are Bev Rice, Les Jonsrud, DeeAnn Rader and Steve Moore. Cyndi Smith, Brent Peterson, and Jim Martin are seeking the Vice Presidential office. Candidates for Secretary are Janice Johnson, Carolyn Hansen and Rosamie Hudson. Dave Dyal and Gretchen Booth are Treasurer candidates. Tomorrow's election should decide next year's slate of officers.

A tip of the hat to senior Wallace Hewitt who was recently awarded a Certificate of Acceptance from the National Poetry Press for a poem submitted by him to the semi-annual Anthology entitled "Young America Sings."

Student Body elections make one realize that the school year is closing in the not too distant future and it is time to look to next year. According to the April 12th issue of Sandy High's Pioneer Press, "Pioneers talk about 7 more weeks of school... 34 more days of school... 238 more hours of school and 204 more periods left in the school year." It is obvious what is on their minds!

Here and there around Sandy High: Eighth-graders of the Sandy High District will become familiar with their future surroundings on May 8 when a program is planned for them at the high school. Parents of 8th graders will meet May 10 at 7:30 for discussion of the curriculum and general information. Miss Joyce Jarrold of New Zealand is planning a visit to Sandy High this week to observe teaching methods, equipment used, etc. She is spending the weekend with the Boothbys. Linda Keyser, a second year speech student, placed fourth in radio at a tournament held at Centennial High recently. Mike Nelson, senior, chosen recently for versatility, plans to attend Oregon State, majoring in civil engineering. Active in football and track, a member of the Crimmon "S" Club and FTA club, Mike is pole vaulting for his fourth year at Sandy High. His record is 12 ft. 3 inches and he hopes to improve this year. Sandy's A.F.S. President, Jennifer Ruegg, was April's girl for versatility. A 3-year Pep Club member, Future Teachers of America member and A.F.S. member, Jennifer is now active in the National Honor Society and Symphonic Choir. She was last year's junior class treasurer, Homecoming Queen in her sophomore year, and this year's Wrestling Queen. She plans to attend college this fall, eventually entering the field of Computer Programming. She feels: "When you know who you are, where you stand, and where you want to go, you will find that life is interesting in itself!"

A brief tip to Sandy housewives: You can bake meat loaf in less than half the time it ordinarily takes if you press it into muffin pans instead of shaping it into a large loaf. Tomorrow night is talent night at Sandy High when the annual Talent Show begins at 7:30. Mick Lane and Doug Castle will be in charge of the show. Among the talent promised are: Shelley Sperr reading a poem by Edgar Allan Poe; Wanda Shaw dancing; Bob Kerr reading poetry; Linda Winchester singing; Dave Dorman and Tom Seales providing drama with laughter; Doug Beckman will give an after-dinner speech; Gary Berger, Julie Fleishman,

Other musical groups will also perform. Students are advised to bring their own pillows to sit on since no chairs will be set up. Summarizing his team's achievements after a poor season, the swimming coach declared: "Well, we didn't win any meets, but we all had a good time and nobody drowned."

The Willamette Valley of Oregon is a vast area with an ideal climate, a wonderful soil, and adequate water for production of fruits and vegetables further into the future than I can visualize. In other words, the Willamette Valley of Oregon is not going to turn into one large housing development as many have predicted. We have a vigorous agriculture industry in Clackamas County which is currently expanding and has a vast potential for future growth. Housing and industry will also grow at a rapid pace in the future. The challenge in Clackamas County in the future will be to plan the use of our limited land and water available so that agricultural and non-agricultural users of these two resources can co-exist.

The planning efforts that are being initiated in most counties in Willamette Valley to look at the available resources of land and water and to plan their use is a very important project.

Industrialization and development of housing has continually taken agriculture land out of production as the outward growth from cities has occurred. To date, this trend has been the same around all cities in the U.S. and I am sure that high prices for land will continue to take agriculture lands away from the plow and into permanent asphalt and buildings. Hopefully, people are becoming more aware that land is a limited natural resource and that it is desirable to protect and conserve agricultural land for future uses. At least, prolonging its use in agriculture and preserving the space for a better future use than a parking lot, a storage space for heavy machinery, or junkyards. For example, the once very fine soil along Columbia Boulevard in Multnomah County was lost to agriculture and is today being used for the purposes mentioned.

The Willamette Valley has an expanding horticultural industry, not only growth of existing companies but new plants being constructed. A brand new plant (Mainline Foods) is in the process of being built at Brooks and crops have already been contracted and planted by growers. This new company has contracted for around 8,000 acres of pears, beans and corn for production in 1968 in Clackamas, Marion and Yamhill counties. The company plans to expand into cauliflower and bro-coli in 1969 and production of different berry crops by 1970. This shows an optimism in the ability of the Willamette Valley to produce horticultural crops of quality and in a quantity to attract new processors.

Another interesting happening which points out the potential for future growth in the area was the attendance at the Mainline Foods first open house for growers. Over 500 growers attended two meetings in two locations and expressed a willingness to produce crops for this new company. Needless to say, only about a third of the growers were able to get contracts for 1968. Thus, a large number went away without contracts, pointing out the availability of growers in the area. This will no doubt cause considerable interest among other new companies currently looking for plant sites.

Our view then is one of optimism for the agricultural potential in Clackamas County and its future growth. I don't see wall-to-wall housing in the area and I believe planners will attempt to direct population and industrial growth on to unproductive or areas unsuitable for agriculture.
