

Bridge Club Mt. Hood Trackmen Score in Corvallis

Master point bridge tournament winners have been announced for the Mt. Hood club by Mrs. Naomi Lee Mellor, Successful in the June 3 tournament at Bowmans were Mrs. E. E. Bowman, Mrs. Bob Woods, Lillian Willis and Mrs. Richard Schultz.

Other winners were Jack and son Steve Strong, Mrs. Kay Wonderlich and Mrs. Med Judson.

Bridge players are welcome to join in the contests each Monday at 7:30 p.m. Partners are provided.

Mt. Hood Community College's Luther Goin and Marv Pope and Corbett's Greg Knopf scored in the Oregon United States Track and Field Federation championships last Saturday at Corvallis.

Goin took first place in the open division long jump and third in the 100-yard dash. Pope was fourth in both events.

Goin went 22-5 1/4 in the long jump, beating out Don Bufington of the Staters Track Club by 3/4 inch. Pope went 21-10 3/4, in the 100, Goin and Pope both were clocked in a wind-aided 19.8. The winner, Ernie Smith of Oregon State, had 19.4.

Knopf won the high school division triple jump, setting a new record in the doing. Knopf went 44 -7 1/4, eclipsing the old mark off 44-1 set by Hudson Bay's Doug Meyer last year.

In the open division, Knopf jumped 42-5, good for fourth place.

In the open division, Mt. Hood had 25 points for fifth place. Oregon State topped team standings.

Stainless Steel Paint
Nickel stainless steel is now available in a paint for industrial applications. The alloy, in flake form, has shown remarkable ability to fight corrosion when applied to outdoor utility installations and has reduced maintenance costs by as much as 30 per cent.

Convention Calls Local Students
Two girls from this area are part of Linfield College's chapter of Spurs which will be represented at a California convention.

Sandy Christian Women's Club

by LAURETTA HARSHMAN

Choosing "Flower Array" as the theme, for their June luncheon, the Sandy Christian Women's Club would encourage any lady in the area to attend their meeting, Friday, June 21, at 12:30 at Wong's Restaurant, Shirley Dyal, chairman, announces that the special feature will be a demonstration by Jackie Morris on the art of flower arrangement. Come and see how you can use a few simple rules to make your bouquets more attractive. Lauretta Harshman will bring the special music and the speaker is Mrs. Lorraine Spring from Vancouver, Washington. You will enjoy her most interesting and informative presentation.

If you've never attended before, call Sharon Logston at 668-6131 for your reservations. Nursery facilities are provided at the Assembly of God Church so drop off your little one or ones there for a very small fee. They will take good care of them.
