

Peruvian Chef at Welches Adds International Flavor

How does a young man from Lima, Peru become Chef at an Oregon resort? In the case of Julio Cueva, new chef at Bowman's Mt. Hood Golf and Country Club, it all started about ten years ago when he met a professor from Portland State College, Dr. Wm. Impeccoven, who was mountain climbing in the Andes. They became friends and Dr. Impeccoven invited Julio to stay at his home if ever he made it to the United States.

Leaving his mother and sister in Peru, Julio later came to Portland and entered Portland State College. It was during this time that he started cooking as a means to put himself through college. He enjoyed it so much that he decided to become a chef! Since then he worked under some of Oregon's top chefs, including those at the Sheraton and Hilton Hotels. For the past eight years he has been with the Thunderbird Restaurants at Eugene and Portland.

He brings many of his own specialties to Bowman's such as Breast of Chicken with Almond dressing and Meat Balls with a sweet and sour sauce. Julio will feature salad bars during the summertime and special buffets for banquets, etc.

Julio is very enthused about living at Hoodland where the "scenery reminds him of home" and the "people are so friendly".

When asked what he likes to do in his spare time, Julio said, "I like to fish and ride, but the first thing I want to do now is learn to play golf." He will never have a better opportunity!

Resignation Denied Davis At Troutdale

Personnel problems occupied the Troutdale City Council at their meeting, Tuesday evening, June 11.

The Council declined to accept the resignation of Councilman Rankin Davis. Davis submitted his resignation because of a conflict in his working hours and the evening council meetings.

The resignation was denied on the grounds that Davis' presence in the city during daytime hours would be useful in conducting city business. It was noted that a city ordinance allows the reimbursement of wages lost by Councilmen who are working on city business, making it possible for Davis to attend evening meetings when his presence is necessary.

The appointment of two new members to the city planning commission was announced. Mrs. William Nesbit and Joe Lucas were named to replace Mrs. Dale Parsons and Harold Lewis, whose terms have expired.

Play Run Extended

The Portland Civic theater will extend the run of "Life with Father" starring Jack Bailey, following the June 16 Fathers Day performances. The play will continue Tuesday evening, June 18, at 8:30 p.m. with nightly performances until Saturday, June 22.

COTTRELL DOINGS

By Mrs. H. Watkins

The Farmers Union had its last meeting for the summer Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Landon Lee. The president is Wilbur Sulzbach.

The potluck supper was enjoyed by about 15 members. Sulzbach showed pictures of a recent trip to Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Brook of Pacific City and Mrs. Peter Marksvarden of Cannon Beach, were here for a party for Bill Beatty and Walter Torbergson, retiring from Bull Run Headworks. The party was at the Women's Club Hall at Sandy. Formation of Mt. View Water district was approved by a slight margin June 5.

The Cottrell Ladies Aid meeting May 29 at Mrs. Pete Hauglum's was the last meeting until September. Visitors were Mrs. Fred Appy of Portland, with her sister from Louisiana.

Mrs. Harold Reynolds is reported as improving. She has been at the Providence hospital again for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramlow Sr., who live in a trailer at their son's, H. Ramlow, have been back at their former home at Eureka, Mont, visiting friends. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nippert and children took their camper and headed down the coast for a couple of day's trip.

Industry projections show that 7,600 commercial aircraft will be flying by 1975, and 5,000 of them will be jets.
