A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK
by KEN BATEMAN
Some people say, "The church is always asking for money." Even if this was 100% true, the expression should be squelched because church people, places and purposes face a constantly growing need for money to carry on work that needs to be done. The world is topsy turvy enough as it is but stop and think how ghastly unlivable it would be without churches.
This brings to mind the meaningful words of Peter Marshall, the revered former chaplain of the U. S. Senate.
"Surely there is something wrong with our lives and standards of values, when we compare what we spend for amusements and what we give to the church. There are gifts made of a cost and some are willing to do without personal comforts in order to have a real part in the Kingdom of God. But there are others whose contributions are more casual and their gifts are more like tips; less than the annual dues in the club; less than the amount they spend on non-essentials."
The thought may be worth thinking about.

Don't forget the annual A.F.S. Dinner scheduled for Saturday, February 22nd at Sandy High...and don't forget that a host family for next year's A.F.S. student is needed...
An excerpt from a letter received prior to Christmas from Dick and Dee Steffl, American parents for Chonlada Saekoh, an AFS student from Thailand. "The second term of the second year of university has started since November 18th so I will be quite busy again. University is pretty hard, especially the field of accountancy which I am majoring. It is known as the hardest field in Thamasart University, but I shall try to do my best. Please say "Hi" to the people I know -- there are so many that I am not going to write down their names."
My apologies to newly-weds Brian and Cheryl (Goff) Blevins...after writing up their wedding, I had added a brief

"seen in passing" comment in my column and learned (after publication) that my short news brief had Cheryl married to Bruce Blevin, the brother and Best Man for the groom! I am sorry for any surprised readers reactions... it was my error - Cheryl is married to Brian Blevins!
Sign seen in a sporting goods store window in Portland: "Think Fish!"
Somehow I can't seem to find those people who recently said so loudly "Boy, I'll never complain about rain again after this winter... Rain is better than snow any old day... at least you can drive around in rain and you don't have to shovel it away!..." So soon that comment is forgotten when the rain begins...!
It is probably too late to use this idea this year, but thought it was worth mentioning. Instead of buying paper valentines, one mother sent edible valentines to school with her child. She made a valentine cookie for each student in his room and wrote the child's name in frosting. It was a little extra work on the mother's part, but was a clever idea...
Martha Williams discovered the world is a lot smaller than you realize. She travelled by plane to Hexton, Colorado to attend her sister and brother-in-law's 60th wedding anniversary January 18th. It was a real family reunion. She hadn't seen her only living uncle, Forrest Knox, now 84 years of age, for over 40 years. Her nephew, who was to meet her on arrival at the airport in

Sandy Art Club News
The Monday morning art class at the Sandy Women's Hall has started again after a several week interruption. Class hours are from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Instructor is Floyd Hanor of Gresham. New students are invited to attend.
The class plans to have a one-student show each month. The first show will be in March, when the paintings of Ethel Adamson will be displayed.

Boring Airman On Navy Carrier
Airman Apprentice Rafael Ceccacci Jr., USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rafael Ceccacci Sr. of Rt. 1, Boring, returned to Norfolk, Va. aboard the aircraft carrier USS Independence.
For the past nine months the 80,000-ton carrier was operating with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean. Independence pilots logged 24,500 aircraft take-offs and landings during various exercises.

Holy Land Talk Set for Group

The Mt. Hood Zone of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League will meet at the Holy Cross Lutheran church, 87th and Burnside St., Portland, Thursday, Feb. 20 from 10 to 2 p.m.
Four area churches—Immanuel, Sandy, Redeemer of Gresham, Ascension of Rockwood and St. Timothy of Lynch—are in the Mt. Hood Zone.
Rev. Donald Roth, host pastor, will lead a Bible study and guest speaker will be Rev. Martin Rohlfing of Resurrection Lutheran church, Portland. Rev. Rohlfing recently returned as a guide with a Bethel Bible tour to Europe and the Holy Land.
Important business will be the election of the Zone delegate to the International Convention at Houston, July 20-22.

Service Line

Randall S. Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Richardson of Rt. 2, Boring, has been promoted to Air Force sergeant. Sgt. Richardson, who attended Cottrell grade school and Sandy and Gresham high schools, has been stationed at Tan Son Nhut air base in Viet-Nam since last summer.

Colorado, walked by her 3 times before either realized the other's identity. The guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wisdom, had other family members attend who had been guests at their wedding sixty years earlier, including Irene Rife, Zella Wisdom and Frank Munroe. When one of the guests asked Martha where she lived, she replied "east of Portland, Oregon." Then came the next question: Do you know where Sandy, Oregon is? Well, it turned out that a Ken Schmidt, of Colorado is a nephew of Fred Schmidt of Rt. 2, Sandy, and a cousin to Martha William's brother-in-law, Tom Wisdom, who was the guest of honor. It seems that Fred Schmidt's mother was a sister to Tom Wisdom's mother. It is really a small world sometimes!
Here is another human interest story...seems a Sandy resident was attending a high school function recently when the announcement was made "about a certain car being parked in front of the fire exit" and requesting the car owner to "please move the car." About ten minutes following the announcement the resident in question got up to leave the school activity and was asked by nearby friends: "Where are you going?" The reply was: "I'm going to move my car from in front of the fire exit - it would have been much too obvious to have stood up and left right after the announcement - everyone would have known then that it was my car!!"

Sandy BPW Club
Sandy Business and Professional Club women will display their baking talents on Friday, Feb. 14, when they will have pies, cakes, cookies and candy for sale at the Clackamas County Bank between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. This is a benefit for support of the service projects of the club, such as a scholarship and ambulance supplies.
At the dinner meeting held at T.J.'s Restaurant February 5, President Florence Schmitz welcomed three new members: Mesdames Ellen Amundsen, Sandy Union High School cafeteria manager; Beth Blunt, interior decorator with Paulson's Floor Coverings and Drapery Service; and Fern Hill, teacher at Bull Run Elementary School.
The invocation was given by Mrs. Lorene Sieler and the flag salute was led by Mrs. Marie Seematter.
After-dinner entertainment was provided by Misses Vickie Eblen and Carolyn Haneberg and Mike Eblen. Solos, "When I Get to Phoenix," and "The Impossible Dream" by Mike; a duet, "Those Were the Days" by Carolyn and Vickie; and a trio, "Born Free" were presented.
Program Chairman Mrs. Esther Hoffmann spoke on the history, aims and accomplishments of the Federation. Its February birthday was celebrated by the lighting of candles atop individually decorated cakes and the singing of a Federation song composed for the occasion by Mrs. Hoffmann.

Marriage Vows Exchanged In Candlelight Ceremony

In a candlelight evening ceremony January 25, at the Church of Christ in Sandy, Cheryl Ann Goff became the bride of Brian C. Blevins.
Bouquets of white glads and cysanthemums accented with white bows decorated the altar as Mr. Gerald Long performed the double-ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Goff of Sandy and the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Blevins of Sandy. The bride's brother, Gene Goff, of Bend and the groom's brother-in-law, Aaron Cooper, of Sandy were candlelighters. Mrs. Kenneth Fox, Mrs. Ed Taylor, Mrs. Ernest Douglass and Mrs. Jim Hart sang "O Promise Me" and "I love You Truly".
The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor-length traditional gown of Chantilly lace with scalloped neckline, a tiered, full skirt and a chapel train. A half-crown of seed pearls held her bouffant, white illusion veil. Red and white roses and white stephanotis tied with white bows formed her cascading bridal bouquet.
Miss Marlene Wilkinson of Boring was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Judy Goff of Bend, Miss Karen Kendall of Redmond, Mrs. Janet Cooper of Sandy and Mrs. Bonnie Blevins of Boring. All bridal attendants wore floor-length sleeveless gowns of red velvet. A bow at the back of the gowns accented the empire styling and the inset of a red taffeta panel below the bow gave the illusion of a train. Red illusion net attached to red velvet covered rings formed their headpieces. Their silver bell necklaces and two-heart pins were gifts from the bride. The bridesmaids held bouquets of red roses and pale green spider cysanthemums accented with red ribbon; the Maid of Honor carried a cascading bouquet of red roses and green cysanthemums. The red roses used in the bouquets were called "Forever Yours."
The groom asked his brother, Bruce Blevins, of Boring to be his best man. Ushers were the bride's brother, Gene Goff of Bend, the groom's brother-in-law, Aaron Cooper of Sandy; Dwight Rardon of Milwaukie and Robert Dutton of Boring.
Approximately 60 guests attended the reception held in the church basement. In keeping with the bridal colors, red roses decorated the multi-tiered wedding cake made by Mrs. Katherine Leach
