Candlelight Ceremony Unites Decker, Liere

A candlelight double ring ceremony June 21 united Helen Louise Decker and Raymond Oscar Liere at the First Presbyterian Church, Portland.

The bride's father escorted her down the aisle, which was accented by two-tone pink ribbon bows on wooden pews. The bride wore a floorlength candlelight gown with full chapel train of organza over misted taffeta. The empire bodice, bishop sleeves and skirt were detailed with imported French lace. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and small white carnations.

MR. AND MRS. RAYMOND OSCAR LIERE (Helen Louise Decker) (Gladys Gilbert Studio)

The bride's attendants wore pink full length crepe gowns with two-tone pink tapestry borders. The bride's matron of honor and sister, Mrs. Edward Johnson, carried a pink rose and baby carnation bouquet accented with hot pink ribbon. Diana Goss, Sunnyvale, Calif., the maid of honor, and Barbara Croston, Sandy, carried bouquets identical to the matron of honor's but accented with pastel pink ribbon.

Mike Frankel, Palo Alto, Calif., was the groom's best man and David Whitehead, San Francisco and Richard Koch, Spokane were attendants. The bride's brothers Bob and Gordon Decker were aided by the groom's brother Al Liere in seating the guests. Mark Johnson, the bride's nephew, presented the rings and Dean Liere, the groom's brother, lit the candles before the ceremony.

Following a reception at the Portland Garden Club, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Acapulco and Mexico City. They are both recent graduates of Stanford University, and will make their home in Mountain View, Calif. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Decker, 17535 SE Tibbetts, Portland and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Liere, Greeracres, Wash.

Sandy Christian Woman's Club

There was a good turn out at the Christian Womens Club luncheon at the Hook and Eye Restaurant in Estacada last Wednesday.

Sixty-five ladies heard Odessa Neild's thrilling message about Today in the Holy Land. Her slides gave insight into what is happening and will be taking place according to prophecy. A question and answer period followed.

The next luncheon meeting will be on Sept. 19 at the House of Wong in Sandy. Baby sitting will be available at the Assembly of God Church.

Featured on the afternoon's program will be Mrs. Jennie Welch who will show some of her interesting antiques. The musical portion of the program will be presented by a girls' trio from Estacada and the speaker will be Uta Summerer.

For further information call Sharon Logston at 668-6131.

Birth

A daughter, Martha ShanDell to Mr. and Mrs. David Earl Lucas, Rt. 1 Box 661, Sandy, August 7.

ANNOUNCED RECENTLY at a family gathering was the engagement of Barbara Ann Holt to Kenneth R. Pastega. Miss Holt, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Holt, Boring, is a 1966 Sandy high school graduate and presently a senior at Oregon College of Education where she is majoring in elementary education. Her fiance is a student at Oregon State University majoring in business administration. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mario Pastega, Corvallis.

State Fair Called 'Big One' Expects Record Attendance

Oregon State Fair manager, Robert L. Stevens, predicts a visiting crowd this year of 400,000 at the Salem fair which opens Aug. 23 and runs through Sept. 1.

An All American Rodeo—Horse show, top-flight entertainment, nine days of thoroughbred racing and a myriad of special events are scheduled.

The agricultural exhibit will host home products and industry displays, an agricultural show, country and commodity feature exhibits and an international photo salon.

Music entertainment from the renowned Inkspots to Oregon's group, the Action Faction, are on the entertainments agenda. Oregon's Action Faction has been making show-biz history in such places as Las Vegas and Nassau.

The Polack Brother Circus top the final three days with spectacular animal acts from all parts of the world.

There will be an All American horse and rodeo show from leading stables from the West and Canada.

The arts and hobbies building will house a new tropical fish department, mineralogy, crafts, a very unusual turn-of-the-century sheet music display and an outstanding currency exhibit from the U.S. Treasury department.

Two Kids Days with a rodeo, horse show opens Saturday, Aug. 23 and Thursday, Aug. 28 with free admission to children 12 and under.

Fire Dept. News

Aug. 12, 3:05 p.m. Car fire, Main and Strauss Sts. Paul Enz, '57 Dodge. Small loss.

Aug. 15, 5:59 p.m. Call to hay fire on Gravel Pit Road. Set. Hay left from previous fire on Aug. 2. No one at scene.

The new Boring fire department building is taking shape rapidly and seems to be good-looking addition to the area.

Head Start Classes Conclude at Firwood

School ended Aug. 8 for the 34 children enrolled in the Firwood Head Start classes. There were some tearful moments for many of the children and staff. The school experience has done a great deal to improve the children's confidence and most of them can now talk with adults easily and are anxious to do so.

The families participated in a watermelon feed and another gathering where certificates were given to the children completing the program. During the evening the children from each class presented programs demonstrating some of the things done in school. Afterwards everyone enjoyed the refreshments prepared by Mrs. Hartschorn.

The staff of the school extend a hearty "thank you" to the many volunteers who worked faithfully throughout the school session. The volunteers were: Connie Thompson, Leslie Jonsrud, Faith-Marie Fowler, Ethel Bandy, Bettie Mickelson, Sharon Beatty, Pete Sulzbach, Greg Mottau, Freda Farmer, Cherrie Thompson, Ruth Holmes, Dennis Thompson, Rebecca Dunham, Lura Dell Callahan, Janice Haneberg, Pat Curi, Cynthia Fraly, Verne Buhler, Mrs. Bunch and Daniel Dunham.

was donated by these volunteers in the two month period. Through these efforts it was possible to extend a great deal of individual help to the children when needed and to give more time to parent activities. The fine turnout at the parent programs and picnics was implemented by this support. More than 100 adults and children participated in each of three individual events held during the last 2 weeks. A number of the volunteers participated daily throughout the period of the school.

Bill Beckley, who coordinates the Head Start programs throughout the county wishes to commend the people of the community on the fine support given the school.

A special vote of thanks is extended to the school system for the use of the Firwood School. The emphasis is now on a full year program for these children so as to reach them at an earlier age. Planning is needed now to determine how a full year program could be run with a very limited increase in funds. Anyone interested in working with the children eligible for this program should contact Verne Buhler at 668-4167. A place to run a class is of prime importance, since all local classrooms are being utilized.

THE BRIDE-TO-BE'S birthday was the date chosen to announce the engagement of Leanne Ruth Mahn and Alan Douglas Phinney. A Sandy High and Northwestern. College of Business graduate, she is employed at Pacific Northwest Life. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Mahn, Rt. 2, Boring. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Phinney, Rt. 3, Troutdale and a Gresham High graduate. He is now attending U.S. Army helicopter school. No date or place has yet been set for the wedding.
