Fischer, Johnson Vows Recited in Aims Church

Bouquets of white gladioli and yellow spider mums decorated the altar at Aims Community Church for the Sunday afternoon, Aug. 17, wedding of Cheryl Ann Johnson and PFC Gordon D. Fischer. The Rev. Howard W. Roberts performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an afternoon length blue gown with an overlay of white lace. She carried a cascading bouquet of yellow and white carnations.

The bride's sister, Janice Johnson, was honor attendant. She wore a teal-blue dress with matching veil and carried a bouquet of yellow mums and blue bachelor buttons.

Best man was Mike Fischer, the groom's brother. Ushers were Butch Johnson, brother of the bride, and John Fischer, brother of the groom.

Earl Weeks, Troutdale, was soloist and Norma Baker, Troutdale, played the organ.

Approximately 150 guests were greeted after the ceremony at the reception in the church basement. The three-tiered white wedding cake, made by Mrs. Allan Baker, Troutdale, was decorated with teal-blue roses. Mrs. Art Smith of Sandy cut the cake. Miss Cheryl Bell, Sandy, served punch and Mrs. Lyle Earley, Pendleton, aunt of the bride, poured coffee. Miss Linda Weeks, Troutdale, was in charge of the guest book. Miss Linda Winchester, Sandy, took care of the gifts. The new Mrs. Fischer wore a yellow dress, accented with white ruffles, and a corsage of yellow carnations, for her going away outfit.

After a honeymoon trip to eastern Oregon and the coast the couple are staying with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Robert F. Johnson of Sandy. The bride is a 1968 graduate of Sandy Union High School and is employed at Hoodview Medical Center. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Fischer, Sandy, is in the US Marine Corps stationed at San Diego, Calif. In October he will leave for a 13-month tour of duty in Vietnam.

With Labor Day Weekend ahead, I hope all drivers take that "extra" precaution while on the highways. Did you hear of the half-wit who heard on the radio that "most fatal accidents happen within 30 miles of your home"... so he moved...?! Seriously though, let's all try to prove those fatality forecasters are wrong this weekend. Drive carefully!

A few more "where-are-they-now?"s from the 1959 Sandy High class reunion held recently:

Several classmates married class members following graduation. Among them are Howard and Jan (Collins) Bjork, now living in Gresham. Howard attended college for two years and is employed as an engineering technician for the U.S. Geological Survey. The Bjorks have three children: Jeffrey, 6, Todd, 4, and Kevin, 2.

Garmond and Janice (Howe) Hodge have two children, Christopher, 8, and Julie, 5, and live in Portland. Following high school, Janice attended Oregon State, then worked for Hyster as a PBX operator. Garmond is an assistant production co-ordinator for Hyster Co., and belongs to the Purchasing Agents Association and Society of American Value Engineers. Kenneth and Joyce (Copher) Kautz, now living in Sandy, both graduated in 1959.

Both Sandy dealerships are represented in this particular class: Frank Fox is an auto body and fender man for Carlson Chevrolet, and Charles "Chuck" Markwell is a mechanic in the Service Department of Glos Ford.

Another classmate-couple is Carl and Judy (Eri) Neumann of Sandy, who have three children. Carl is employed by Ken Parker, a mason contractor, and Judy works as a meat wrapper at Lee Meat Co.

John Ludi is now a Captain in the United States Army. At present he is an advisor for a South Vietnamese Unit located close to Saigon. His wife, Kay, and their three children, John, 5, Susan, 3, and Timothy, 6, are living in Walla Walla, while John is overseas. John received a B.A. in Industrial Arts upon graduation from Eastern Washington College in 1964.

Carol (Snyder) Kilmer in Laramie, Wyoming -- Carol attended college in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, for three years. Her husband, Rick, is a student working for his M.A. and also a photographer. One of the highlights of the past ten years was through her husband's interests: "I met John Wayne while he was on location in Casper, Wyoming as Rick was on an assignment to photograph him." The Kilmers have one son, Darren, born March 2, 1969.

Felix Quinn is stationed at Hamilton Air Force Base in California.

Mert Meeker is a self-employed philatelic illustrator and lives in Seattle. Frances McConnell received her B.A. and M.A. from Chico State College in Chico, Calif. and is presently working on her Ph.D. degree in education and guidance. She is also a graduate assistant physical education teacher at the University of New Mexico. She belongs to the N.E.A. and the New Mexico State P.E. Association. Fran has travelled across the country and seen many of the states with softball and basketball in New Mexico. Her other hobbies include scuba diving and fishing. Fran now lives in Albuquerque, N.M.

The cute Troll banks offered for sale at the Clackamas County Bank might give incentive to a youngster saving...in addition to collecting money - they bring good luck!!

Here's a tip for housewives that I overheard: Vanilla extract is a natural deodorizer. A teaspoonful mixed in a quart of paint neutralizes the paint odor. A dab of cotton dampened with a few drops of vanilla placed inside your refrigerator will keep it smelling fresh. It's worth a try...

Seen in Passing: Ross and Amanda Clapp celebrated their 56th wedding anniversary last weekend...Al and Grace Morner had their 9th wedding anniversary Aug. 22...another recent wedding anniversary: John and Lucille Christensen - Aug. 19...Carl Brinkley checking groceries at Three Boys Market...Sandra Lundeen working at Mt. Hood Community College...Martha Drew and Brian Boothby taking flute lessons from the same teacher in Portland...Kathleen Knapp and Gina Glos modeling in a Teen Fashion Show at Rhodes in Portland...Parents looking forward to school...Bowling Leagues forming...Alvy and Grace Lamb celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Aug. 22...It was a 3rd wedding anniversary for Dan and Carol Barker on the 22nd...The Phillip Bernards noted another anniversary (I believe, their 28th) on Aug. 25th...Carolyn Hanneberg and Dixie Gilham are waitresses at the House of Wong.

One local resident recently advised: "Oregon has two seasons - Winter and August!"

Teachers will again be called upon to answer the questions that parents have been asked throughout the summer vacations...and some questions posed are pretty difficult to answer...like the local youngster who wanted to know what would happen if you mixed a bottle of ink eradicator (he had just seen it in use) with a bottle of ink!!!

And a closing reflection: "Nothing changes the line of a man's thought quicker than spading up a fishing worm while digging in the garden!"
