

Wemme Church Sets New Time

A little over a year ago, the Episcopal mission at Wemme, known as The Church of the Transfiguration, was organized. The Rev. Fr. Victor E. Gibson of St. Luke's Episcopal Church at Gresham, is the officiating clergyman. The hours of Mass have varied but commencing Sunday, Nov. 16, services will be held at 12:30 each Sunday. It is hoped this hour will be a more convenient one for the participating families.

Practicing ecumenicalism, the Roman Catholics have shared their beautiful log church with the Episcopalians. The members of The Church of the Transfiguration have expressed their deep gratitude and thanks to those of St. John's Catholic Church.

Wrights Drawn To Mountain

Kathy and Bill Wright, owners of the House of Beauty in the new Hoodland Park Plaza Shopping Center, are in business in Hoodland for one big reason...they fell in love with the area.

The Wrights have owned and operated the Fashionette Beauty Salon in Portland since 1940. They are ardent golfers and played at Bowman's for several years. They became so fond of the area that they have bought a condominium and moved to the mountains.

They keep up with the new trends and are constantly attending classes and shows and have taken lessons from many well-known hair stylists.

The Wrights had in mind for some time a salon at the mountains and when they first heard rumors that a shopping center was coming in they investigated immediately.

The brand new House of Beauty is the result.

Also a part of the House of Beauty staff is Leora Beadle, who not only is a very fine hair stylist but also an instructor.

 There are 13 stores now to serve the public in the new Hoodland Park Plaza Shopping Center.
