Namhie vows solemnized

Sheila Marie Hanson wore her great-great-aunt's cameo when she exchanged vows Nov. 28 with Kimmer Allen Namhie.

The Rev. Ed Grable performed the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Hanson, Rt. 3, Box 86, Sandy, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Namhie, Rt. 1, Box 534, Boring.

Pink, gold and lavender ribbon mums made by Irene Metcalf decorated Sandy Baptist Church for the 8 p.m. candlelight ceremony.

Mrs. Lois Bennett was organist and John Bowman was soloist.

The bride wore a traditional white lace gown and a Juliet-style headpiece held her veil. Her flowers were white mums and yellow sweetheart roses centered with an orchid.

Mrs. John Hutton was her sister's matron of honor in a deep gold dress. She carried gold ribbon mums.

Sheri Adams and Dianne Namhie were bridesmaids. They wore deep rose and lavender.

Randy Proctor, Boring, was best man. Ushers were Robert Flath and Keith Linter.

The bridegroom's mother made the heart-shaped wedding cake.

Assisting at the church reception for approximately 200 guests were Mrs. Kaye Ramlow, Mrs. Joan Hanson, Mrs. Betty Barzee, Mrs. Cindy Sabin and Mrs. Susie Caba. Robbie Knoll was in charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Barzee, Seattle, and Mr. and Mrs. H.D. Ranlow, Kent, Wash.

After a wedding trip down the coast, the couple is at home at Rt. 1, Boring.

The new Mrs. Namhie attends Mt. Hood Community College and is a waitress in Oregon City. Her husband, also attends MHCC night classes and works for Franz Bakery.

Story telling is held at library

A story hour for pre-school children is being continued through the winter at 2 o'clock every Tuesday.

Mrs. Janet Neuenfeldt is the "Story Lady". All the children who attend will have their name printed on a "mouse" on the bulletin board. The motto for this month is "Be a Mouse in the Book House". Mothers may browse in the library while the children are listening to stories.

Church dinner draws 200

Approximately 200 members and friends of the Hood View Seventh-day Adventist Church attended the annual winter banquet Sunday in the Hood View School Gymnasium.

The candlelight dinner featured large snow flakes and a rotating mirrored sphere suspended from the ceiling which reflected colored lights and cast snowflake shadows around the room.

A snow tipped fair bough centerpiece held blue candles. Dinner music was played.

The speaker, Pastor Tom Stafford, was presented by Mrs. Kenneth Ladd, chairman of the social committee.

Others on the committee were Bernie Bingham, Mrs. Don McConnell, Al Murphy, George Wright, Mrs. Paul Nystrom, Dale Pestes, Ray Haynes, Mary Lou Karlen and Mrs. Glen Zuercher.

Army programs have openings for graduates

The job market for college graduates has tightened considerably, but U.S. Army Recruiting Main Station officials in Portland are still encouraging recruiters to accept applications from young men and women college grads.

The Officer Candidate School (OCS) enlistment option for male college grads has been open on a limited basis since August 1970. Recruiters are looking for highly qualified individuals who meet established mental and physical standards and are of strong moral character.

There are also openings for women college graduates who may qualify as officers in the Women's Army Corps. Graduates with majors in Economics, Journalism, Education or the Humanities for example, may find jobs directly related to their major field of college study. Women grads may qualify for a commission if they are between ages 18 and 34, married or single and with no dependents under 18 years of age.

Interested persons in eastern Multnomah county may call Sergeants Bob Riggi or John Vermillion for more information at 665-7524 in Gresham.
