Sandy grad engaged

Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Bench have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jeanne Elizabeth to A-C Robert Steven Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Parker, Boring. Miss Bench graduated from Seymour Texas High School this year. Parker graduated from Sandy High School and is now serving with the Air Force in Vietnam.

PICKING STRAWBERRIES is one way to earn money for football camp. John McVicker discovered. The Sandy High School sophomore is earning money to attend Sports Acres Aug. 8-14.

"WHAT A WAY to spend your day off!" Local pharmacist Tom Sullivan took a trip "only 15 minutes from my home" and brought back a six pound, 23 1/2 inch Rainbow trout. Tom refused to say where on the Clackamas River he caught it but said he was going to stick to fishing in this area rather than going to Eastern Oregon. He caught the trout on a fly rod and took 30 minutes to land it.

Sandy cleaned by Cub Scouts

Cub Scout Pack 248 participated in a nationwide environmental project June 5 for all Boy and Cub Scouts.

Called "Project Soar," the program was a clean-up of community streets. Pack 248 collected a large amount of trash during the day.

A week later, June 12, Pack 248 had a swimming party at Sandy Municipal pool.

Scoutmaster Robert Bogle has asked anyone who could help in upcoming picnics, fireside activities or other outings to call 668-6570.

CUB SCOUT Pack 248 had a swimming party recently at Sandy Municipal pool. They have been busy recently with many activities.

SANDY IS a cleaner town, thanks to "Project Soar." These Cub Scouts from Pack 248 participated in nationwide cleanup project for Boy and Cub Scouts held June 5. All scouts cleaned up their community that day.

Sandy National splits

Sandy Senior National split a pair of decisions last week against Rockwood and Reynolds opponents.

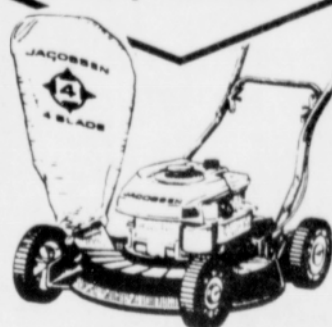

Rockwood squeaked by Sandy 3-2 June 22. David Hudgeons fanned 13 hitters but was backed with only four hits by his Sandy teammates. Hudgeons collected one hit and so did Jay Hartke, Jeff Gagner and Brad Paluck.

When Sandy traveled to Reynolds Monday, June 28, they pounded out a 13-9 victory. The Sandy team scored 11 runs in the first inning but Reynolds came back with six in the bottom of the second inning. Sandy fought to hold the lead as relief pitcher Mike Uskoski nailed down the victory. He struck out eight batters in protecting the victory. Dan Dodson started for Sandy.

Sandy punctured Reynolds pitching for 15 hits. Collecting two hits each were Gagner, Dan Dodson, Don Dodson, Paluck, Mike Meyers and Jeff Nambie. Hartke scored three runs for Sandy and Gagner and Dan Dodson scored two runs.

Giants drop Douglas

Sandy Giants trimmed David Douglas 2 Monday night, June 28, by a score of 7-4.

The visiting Giants fell behind 3-0 after two innings. But they rallied once in the fourth inning and four times in the fourth for a 5-3 edge. They scored single runs in the sixth and seventh innings while Douglas managed a solo run in the bottom of the sixth inning. Rick Markgraph and Mike Pullen combined to hurl the Sandy win. Pullen gave up four hits and fanned ten in his pitching stint.

Dan Turin led Sandy with three hits and two RBI's. One of his hits was a ground-rule double that bounced over a fence. Randy Moody collected a pair of hits and another ground-rule double for Sandy while driving in one run.
