Mrs. and Mrs. Richard Marshall

Couple makes home in Sandy

Nona Jane Bennett and Richard E. Marshall are now at home in Sandy following their wedding on Nov. 13. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orval C. Bennett, Rt. 1 Box 227, Boring and is a 1969 graduate of Sandy High School. She now is attending Portland State University. Her husband is the son of Mr. Ruth Marshall, Rt. 2 Box 570, Sandy. He is a 1967 graduate of Sandy High School and is currently employed by the Forest Service in Estacada. The double ring ceremony was officiated by Rev. James Lenington at the Pleasant Home Baptist Church. The church was decorated with blue and white carnations. The bride wore a white full floor length gown with a train connected at the waist. She carried white carnations accented with blue bachelor buttons. The gown has been in her family for years and was worn by her two sisters when they were married. Mrs. Owen Douglas played the organ and Mrs. Gilbert Jones sang. Frednal Angell was the honor attendant and Darlene Cannon and Pat Phillips, sisters of the bride, and Julie Jones were bridesmaids. Linda Tooke was the flower girl and Nicky Phillips was the ring bearer. Ernie Marshall, brother of the groom, was the best man and Clyde Shaver, Dan Tooke and Dennis Bennett, brother of the bride, were ushers. Approximately 175 persons attended the reception at the church following the wedding. Assisting at the reception were Marjorie Middleton, Loranine Tooke, Stella Chase, Jessie Anderson, and Deborah Lundeen. The couple took a honeymoon trip to Timberline Lodge and the Oregon coast before making their home in Sandy.

FAMILY DINNER at River Queen New Year's Eve marked the engagement of Gloria Ann Moore and Stephen Lawrence Leest. The bride-elect, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Moore, Rt. 1, Box 682, Boring, attended Sam Barlow High School. Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Leest, Crescent City, Calif., is a graduate of Del Norte County High School. The couple plans a summer wedding in Sandy.

Donna Grashorn bride of Milwaukie teacher

Donna Jean Grashorn chose floor-length red velvet gowns for the attendants in her wedding to Tom Ray VanDorn. The couple was married at 3 p.m. Dec. 18 at St. Henry Catholic Church. The Rev. Gregory Gage performed the single ring ceremony. Dr. Norman Norquist was soloist. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ursula Grashorn, 580 NW Towle Ave., and Robert L. Grashorn, Sandy. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond VanDorn, Milwaukie.

MR. AND MRS. TOM RAY VANDORN (Donna Jean Grashorn) (Dee Studio)

The bride wore a nylon organza gown with empire waistline and high neckline. The dress was accented in lace. A Camelot-style headpiece held her fingertip veil. She carried red and white carnations and holly. The bride's sister, Mrs. James Carruth, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Debbie Loughmiller, Anita McCann and Melanie Countryman. All were gowned in red velvet and carried red carnations and holly. Rick VanDorn served his brother as best man. Ushers were Roger Hohimer, John Melonas and Steve Gaylord. The couple greeted approximately 200 guests at a reception at Gresham Elks Club.

Assisting were Bud Okell, Robert Harshman, Catherine Markvardsen, Millie Okell and Shirleen Jacobs. Susan Markvardsen was in charge of the guest book. The new Mrs. VanDorn changed to an orchid and white dress with orchid accessories for her honeymoon at Mt. Hood. The couple is at home at 9545 NE Marine Dr.

The bride, a graduate of Sam Barlow High School, is a dental assistant. Her husband, a Linfield College graduate, is a teacher.

MRS. KENNETH ROBERT WEATHERS (Trudy Diane Neilson)

Trudy Neilson January bride
