

Nell's Notes

By NELL HOWE
Hood-Land Reporter

It is not the most usual thing for a holly tree to be heavily laden with berries this late in the season. However, Elizabeth Wills had such a tree and enjoyed watching it.

It was a large tree, and all the berries were carried in the top part of the tree. Sometime the last of March, someone topped Mrs. Will's holly tree and absconded with all the berries, also the top of the tree.

How low can some people be. Not only is it not funny, but a dirty trick to play on anyone. I hope they get stuck by the leaves and that all the berries fell off before they arrived at their destination.

Margaret Ann Fielding called and asked me to remind everyone that they still need Betty Crocker Coupons as the offer is still going on for the kidney machine drive. There are jars for the coupons in most of the stores and markets, also at the bank.

Margaret Ann also asked me to announce that April is the time for the Annual Red Cross Drive for funds. They are in a pretty bad shape because of the number of disasters this year.

The Red Cross is desperately in need of funds to assist the people in Vancouver after their disaster. You can make a donation for a membership in the American Red Cross and designate that you want the funds to go for assistance to Vancouver, and they will do so. Send any donations to American Red Cross, P.O. Box 70, Portland, Ore.

Jim Smith, son of Roy and Georgia Baylis, Brightwood, has returned home after serving 18 months with the U.S. Army. He had been stationed in Freiburg, Germany.

New man at college

A California educator will join the Mt. Hood Community College staff July 1 as assistant to the president.

He is John Hartnett Jr., presently principal of the Paso Robles, Cal., high school. He will replace Bob Kull who is returning full time to classroom duties.

Hartnett attended Santa Clara and, after military service, graduated from the University of Pacific in Stockton, Cal. He has wide experience on the secondary level.

Grange benefit

A benefit ham dinner will be held Sunday, April 16, from 1 to 5 p.m. at the Pleasant Valley Grange Hall, Foster Road at 176th.

The Grange is giving this dinner for the benefit of the Montavilla Adult Center, an organization that is mainly supported by the churches, businessmen and people living in that area. This is a volunteer group in which even the director and organizer receives no pay.

The public is invited to attend.

Barlow Road meeting topic

Organizations interested in saving the Barlow Road have been invited to meet in Oregon City, Sunday, April 30 at 2 p.m. in the Mertie Stevens Guest House at 7th and Washington Streets.

Purpose of the meeting is to combine efforts to save the road which has been designated a scenic trail by the federal government. The combined group, to be known as the New Old Barlow Road Company of the Oregon Trail, hopes to prepare a register of all descendants of Barlow Road pioneers.

Pictures of the Trail will be shown or Orson Goodrich and Tom Vaughn, director of the Oregon Historical Society, will speak.
