

BOB RICHARDS (above) meets current demand by installing telephone in new apartment project, one of 23 underway right now. R.S. Renford (right) prepares for the future by engineering a five-year plan of service facilities.

GTE

PAT DOWNEY draftsman, provides schematics for (current projects) after engineers have prepared plans. J.C. Shambo, at cable side frame connects outside cable pairs to equipment that will serve new subscribers or changes in service. Ken Beiersdorf, (right) in the equipment center checks operation of connector switches. His is a continuing task, a routine pursued to assure the correctness of the dial pulses. This office processes over 4,393,000 long distance and local calls per month.

