Stan Wiley assigns Bob Adkins

Appointment of Bob Adkins as specialist in apartment complex sales has been announced by Roger Jones, Manager of the Commercial Investment Division of Stan Wiley Inc., Realtors.

A broad business-financial background gives Adkins the ability to knowledgeably assist buyer and seller with any size multi-dwelling complex. The personality of Adkins is well known in many a Portland household. He appeared for 13 years on a children's television program as "Addy Bobkins." His loyalty to Oregon is evidenced by his many civic and charitable involvements as well as his position on the David Douglas School Board.

needlecraft department, according to Mrs. Hal Zurcher, 15505 SE Tibbetts, Portland, superintendent in charge. Special purple rosettes will again be awarded for the best of crocheting, the best of knitting and the best of show in machine sewn clothes.

The foods department will offer special prizes for the best cake, the best cookies, the best pie and pastry and for top points garnered in canned fruit and vegetables and in preserves, all in addition to other cash and ribbon awards. Hottest competition in the foods department is for the Sweepstakes award to the exhibitor scoring the highest total points.

Premium books listing entry categories in all 13 departments are available by postal card request to the Multnomah County Fair, Portland, Oregon, 97217, or by telephoning 285-7756.

Will graduate

Commencement at Warner Pacific College will be Sunday June 4 at 7 p.m. Mrs. Pauline Moore, formerly of Sandy, is among the 74 graduates. Mrs. Moore will receive her Bachelor of Science degree after 32 years of being out of school. She attended Kansas State Teachers College and New Mexico Highlands University.

Monte Shelton (foreground-Lola) and Les Huddleston (Mustang) take a practice lap at West Delta Park in preparation for the Rose Cup Sports Car Races June 10th and 11th at Portland International Raceways. Shelton's Lola is a top contender in the "A" Sports Racing Class, while Huddleston will appear in the "A" Sedan competition. Over 200 drivers are expected to race in the 17 class Rose Cup.

Rose Cup races slated

"Gentlemen—Start your engines!" Seventeen classes of Rose Cup Racing take over the Portland International Raceways facility June 10 and 11 at West Delta Park in Portland. The nine turn, 1.9 mile course will host witness to speeds approaching 150 mph in the straight-a-ways and spectators can get their money's worth from either west or east end of the course where ample viewing room is available. (Six visible turns from the west end and three visible turns from the east end.)

All classes boast tough competition, from open wheel formula racing cars to production models including unlimited sports racing cars. Back again in 1972 is the Group 44 Inc. racing team, one of the most victorious racing teams in the world. Newcomer to Group 44 this year is popular John McComb and his "C" car, 200 competitors are expected. Monte Shelton's Lola is a top contender (Portland) as is Mike Eyerly's Porsche 908. (Salem)

Entries are still being accepted, but those posted after June 5 will be assessed a $5 late entry fee in addition to the regular fee. This event is open only to 1972 SCCA National Competition License holders. Entry information is available from the Oregon Region, S.C.C.A., P.O. Box 444, Portland, Oregon 97208. The 12th Annual Rose Cup Sports Car Races are a Sports Car Club of America (S.C.C.A.) National Championship event, sponsored by the Portland Rose Festival Association, organized and conducted by the Oregon Region, insured and sanctioned by the S.C.C.A.

Saturday's activities consist of qualification runs beginning at 9:30 a.m. Groups I through V will heat up the asphalt before noon with groups VI and VII continuing until 2 p.m. Then they tour the course "one more time" until 5:30 p.m.

On Sunday, qualifications
