The Wise Owl Says

A friend is one who dislikes the same people that you dislike

Nell's Notes

By NELL HOWE
Hood-Land Reporter

As we have been gone for the past week, I have no idea what has been going on around here, so will have to bore you with our trip.

We took off a week ago Sunday morning, with granddaughter, Julie for Disneyland. Took our time going down. Stopped at the Vinesse Wine Cellars tasting room. Beautiful place, delicious wines.

Julie was served grape juice. Arrived in Anaheim on Tuesday afternoon. Leslie and George, Janice and Garm and Chris all arrived about 6 p.m.

Up early Wednesday morning and at Disneyland when it opened at 9:30. Spent the entire day there, including dinner. Delicious dinner overlooking the Pirates of the Caribbeans cave.

It has to be a toss-up between the Pirates, the Matterhorn and It's a Small World. All the greatest.

Believe it or not we covered all of the rides we wanted to go on, and some that weren't so hot, but the grandchildren loved them all.

One of the most outstanding attractions is the one with Abe Lincoln. Too bad they can't send it all around the U.S. so that every young person, and those not so young can hear it. Stupendous.

Thursday we went swimming all day, then early in the evening, Dave, Garm, Chris, Julie and I went to Knotts Berry Farm, George and Leslie went back to Disneyland. Jan took a nap.

Knotts has improved greatly since our last visit, much cleaner and a lot more to do, but small potatoes after Disneyland. Only stayed a couple of hours.

Friday we left early for Marineland. Saw all the shows, viewed all the fish and slid down the huge slide.

Which reminds me, Knotts Berry Farm has one new ride that is a real thriller. The Log Ride. Excellent and exciting. Disneyland should have one like it.

From Marineland back to San Pedro to the Los Angeles Harbor. If you have never

Methodist schedule barbecue

The annual July 4 Beef Barbecue on the Methodist Church lawn will serve another western meal for the hundreds attending the Molalla Buckaroo this year.

Over 800 pounds of prime beef will be prepared by the traditional pit barbecue method.

The beef barbecue was first started by the Molalla Methodists because there were not enough eating places for the crowds attending the Molalla Buckaroo. The church is located on a downtown corner with a lawn next to the street.

Besides serving barbecue beef, potatoes, salads and all kinds of vegetables will also round out the menu.

The cost of the dinner will be $2 for adults and $1 for children under 12. There will also be a special family rate.

Truck stolen, man charged

A Williams Thriftway truck was taken and wrecked on Highway 26 near Stone Road on June 8 at about 4:30 a.m. Shortly thereafter, Hammon Gregory of Dammasch Hospital was arrested on charges of unauthorized use of a vehicle.
