

Let's Turn a Page

By CORDELIA SAYLER

Simone de Beauvoir, in The Coming of Age, gives us a definitive study of old age throughout the ages.

The Raid by Victor Kolacoff, is a picture of the Arab-Israeli war from the Arab point of view.

J.J. Scarisbrick's Henry VIII provides timely background reading on Henry VIII and his wives for a television series being re-run this summer.

These are three of the new books received by Gresham Branch Library during June.

STEPHEN CHINN

Chinn graduates

Stephen Gene Chinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chinn, Rt. 3, Gresham, was graduated in absentia from Andrews University, Berrien Springs, Michigan, on June 4, with a master of divinity degree cum laude.

He was one of 357 students who obtained degrees from Andrews University this spring. The university is operated by the Seventh-day Adventist denomination.

Council schedules hearings

Gresham city council will hear an appeal from the Planning Commission Tuesday, July 18, on a requested zone change of the property owned by School Bus Services.

The property is now used to park school buses. It is located between NE Hood St. and NE Kelly St. and NE 2nd and NE 3rd.

E.G. Larson and George Fourier want to construct a garage on the property. It would mean a zone change from C-1 to C-2.

The council also will conduct four other hearings on petitions for zone changes.

Frank Giusto has asked for a zone change to permit duplexes and single family residences on E. Powell at Wallula St.

Eugene R. Muskopf and Herbert Perkrul have petitioned for a reduced lot size on property on Barnes Road between Hilliard and Chase. They plan single family residences.

Transcorp of Oregon, Inc., has petitioned for a zone change from R-10 (10,000 sq. ft.) to a single family planned unit development on Towle Road between Johnson Creek and the area south.

Commonwealth, Inc., has petitioned for a zone change to permit duplexes and single family residences on NE Hacienda Ave. between Section Line Road and Cochran Road.

Hurt driver doing OK

A Gresham area man was in good condition at Woodland Park Hospital Friday, following a two car accident July 6.

Jens Fintland, 19, of 1017 NE 178th Ave., was injured when his auto collided with another about 5:30 p.m. at the intersection of SE 188th Ave. and Burnside St.

The driver of the other car, Elizabeth Stella Hunter, 46, of 847 SE 169th Dr., was unhurt.
