

Fun Day for blind at Sandy

Sunday, July 23, is Funday for the Blind at Oral Hull Park near Sandy.

The public is invited for this day of fun. Barbecued chicken lunch from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. will be served by the Parkrose Lions and Gresham Ladies of Elks. All proceeds go to helping develop a 22 acre park with full recreational facilities designed specifically for the blind.

Funday will feature booths with handicraft by the blind, music, games, a visit to the "garden of enchantment" and other fun things.

Drive to Sandy, turn left at Glos Ford Automobile Agency, then follow the signs to Oral Hull Park.

Karen Kang receives scholarship

Karen Kang, a 1972 graduate of Sam Barlow High School, has been granted a scholarship from Mills College in Oakland, Calif.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mooney Kang of Rt. 2, Box 311, Gresham.

Another daughter, Valerie, graduated from the University of Oregon June 10 with a major in psychology. She received a 4.00 grade point in the spring quarter. She is a 1965 graduate of Gresham High.

Hospitals accredited

Woodland Park Hospital, 10300 NE Hancock, and City of Roses Hospital, 1400 SE Utamilla, have received two year accreditations under the new standards by the Joint Commission of Accreditation of Hospitals.

The Joint Commission accredits hospitals meeting high standards of medical care by presenting a Certificate of Accreditation.

A JCAH team investigates each hospital prior to certification.

Two-car crash hurts driver

A local man was slightly injured July 6, in a two-car accident near Gresham.

Sheriff's reports said Lee Olen Weiskop, Jr., 39, of 19630 SE Stark St., was hurt when his auto collided with another at the intersection of Stark and SE 197th Ave. about 11 p.m.

Weiskop's wife was unhurt, as was the driver of the other auto, Edwin Lee Boomhower, 23, of 2960 NE 223rd Ave.

Weiskop was treated and released at Gresham Community Hospital and was cited for failing to yield the right of way, according to the police report.
