

FULL SIZE color TV was the grand prize in celebrating the opening of Burns Brothers new location at the Husky Travel Center in Troutdale. Art Mosley, left, vice president, presents winners, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Viebrock, with the set. Thousand of entries from all over the country were in contention.

Allstate appoints Ed Perry

Edward E. Perry of Gresham has been appointed an agent for the Allstate Insurance Companies for this area, according to Kent Stoner, Regional Manager.

He will be located in the Allstate office in the Oregon City Shopping Center.

Perry has recently com-

He also has been appointed local representative of the Allstate Motor Club and the Allstate Safety Crusade. The Crusade, a countrywide program to reduce traffic and home accidents, offers individuals and community groups safety leaflets and films at no charge through Perry.

Perry is a graduate of the Manitoba Technical Institute in Winnipeg, Manitoba. He and his wife and their three daughters live at 2035 NE Juniper Court, in Gresham.
