

Mt. Players production ready for weekend shows

"The Man Who Came To Dinner", current offering by the Mt. Players, has been rescheduled by popular demand for two more showings. The performance Friday, Sept. 22 is for a mixed audience with an 8 p.m. curtain time. The Saturday, Sept. 23, show will be presented Cabaret-style for adults only.

Beverages will be served during this one performance only and although curtain time is the same an earlier arrival is suggested.

Proceeds will be used to move the log building at the door of the Lions Pavilion Theater on performance nights. For information regarding all Mt. Player activities contact president, Lois Boget, at the Zig Zag Inn.

Wemme to the new site at Hoodland Park where it will be a permanent community theater. The actual moving date has been set for Oct. 24 by the moving contractor Terry Emmert of Emmert Industries.

The Mt. Players are now within a few hundred dollars of attaining the needed funds for the move and all efforts are aimed in this direction. An all-out effort is being made to encourage new patrons and donations of any amount.

Contact members of the Mt. Players for tickets to shows. They may also be purchased at

HOODLANDERS HATE to fall trees but sometimes it can't be avoided. Such was the case at Mt. Players work party to clear area around log building being moved to new site at Hoodland Park October 24, for use as community theater. ### Cottrell Doings

Mrs. H.H. Watkins

The Golden Wedding reception for Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Brook, which was sponsored by their children, was held on Sunday, Aug. 13, at the home of their son, the Roy Brooks on Bluff Road. A large gathering of relatives and friends called during the afternoon.

Those serving at the reception were granddaughters. Linda Brook served the cake, and Susan Updegrave and Nancy McWilliams poured the punch.

Some of the guests came from California, and some from Moses Lake and Seattle. The Jerome Brook family lived in the community many years, but now live in Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook of Sacramento, Calif. have been here visiting sisters, Mrs. Clarence Griffin and Mrs. Landon Lee, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Maurice Light of Gresham.

They were all attending the wedding on Sept. 16th of Charles Light, son of Mr. and Mrs. Light of Madras.
