

County offices get new phone numbers

Clackamas County Commissioners, the County Sheriff and all county government agencies will have new telephone numbers when their offices open for business Monday, Dec. 4.

Sandy area residents will still be able to make use of the direct line to the county switchboard. The number of the direct line is 668-5234.

All these changes result from a large-scale conversion by Pacific Northwest Bell from outdated telephone switchboard equipment to a phone system that permits direct inward and outward dialing for all extension phones.

Following is a list of the changed phone numbers for the Clackamas County and City of Oregon City agencies:

OBITUARIES

Marie Price

Marie H. Price, 56, of Rt. 2, Box 1240, Sandy, died Nov. 28
after a short illness.

She was born in Buhl, Ida., where she spent her early years and attended school. In 1939 she married John W. Price in Twin Falls, Ida., and came to Oregon City in 1944. They have resided in this area since that time.

Mrs. Price was employed in the distribution department for Safeway Stores, Inc. as a packer of fresh produce. She was a member of the Assembly of God Church in Sandy and the Teamsters Local 206.

She is survived by her husband, John, and two children, Mrs. Cora Dobbs and John Price both of Portland; a brother, Cleo Shaddy of Buhl, Ida., and three sisters, Mrs.
Dorothy Doris of Sunnyside Wash., Mrs. Vanita Bebout of Modesto, Calif., Mrs.
Wanda Broome of Modesto, Calif.; also three grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Friday, Nov. 28, at the Bateman Funeral Chapel with interment in Willamette National Cemetery.

Raymond Griffin

Raymond A. Griffin, a former Sandy area resident, died in Ventura, Calif., on Nov. 28.
He was 72 years of age.

Raymond Albert Griffin was born on Oct. 6, 1900, in Carver, Minn. As a young child, his parents moved to Flaxton, N.D.
In 1909 they moved to Oregon to make their home in the Sandy and Boring area. Mr. Griffin attended Cottrell Grade School and Immanuel Lutheran

State's deaths climb

Oregon's march toward a new record for traffic deaths continued in November with 57 people killed in 50 reported fatal crashes.

The Motor Vehicles Division
says the state's 11 month traffic death toll stood at 690, up 6.3
per cent over the same period last year.

At least 29 of those killed last month were reported by police to have had seat belts in their vehicles but the belts were not in use at the time of the fatal crashes.

The November victims included nine pedestrians. Winter months usually are especially hazardous to pedestrians because of early hours of darkness and reduced visibility due to bad weather.

Mats taken

Shooting mats valued at $50 were reported stolen from the Troutdale Gun Club, SW4th, Troutdale, sometime during the past week, according to sheriff's reports.

GOOD OLD STANDBY

A recent study by a packaged food manufacturer indicated that 80 percent of all U.S. households served hamburger once a week, and 70 percent used it more than twice a week.

Survivors include two brothers: Clarence and Harvey Griffin of Boring; four sisters:

Irene Fridell, Calif.; Dorothy
Bird and Florence Shannon, Portland; Marcella Williams,
Gresham, one son: Ralph Griffin, Portland; and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held
Dec. 2 at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Sandy with burial at Firhill Memorial Cemetery.
Sandy Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
