

Plays selected for AFS show at Sandy high

By LYDIA SALSMA
 "Oh, you charming man! I'm just never quite sure if you're being complimentary or teasing me. How do you like my latest chapeau? The designer in Paris called it her 'Trez chick' number."
 Charity giggles to Sidney, "I noticed it the minute you walked in."
 These are some lines from one of the A.F.S. plays: "He lured her to the Primrose Path (BUT HE WAS NIPPED IN THE BUD)", to be presented by Sandy highschool students Feb. 7, at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria. The foreign exchange student from England, Dave Rice, plays the black hearted villain in the other A.F.S. PLAY "The perils of Priscilla or The school marm's dilemma".

 Between these plays are featured some good "old" time "Vauderville acts".
