

Nell's Notes

By NELL HOWE

So very sorry to hear of the passing of Hatie Hackett. Katie has been on the mountain for the past several years and for many of those years worked at ZigZag Inn. She will be missed by her many friends on the mountain. Our very deepest sympathy to her family.

Was so very shocked to hear that Irene Petrie was in the hospital. At this writing she is out of intensive care and not able to have visitors yet. I am sure she would appreciate cards and letters from all the ones she knows on the mountain. Irene is at the Portland Osteopathic Hospital, 2900 S.E. Steele, Portland 97202.

Eating at Jimmy's is just not the same without Irene to wait on you. She is special people.

Some very peculiar type of character stole the Wild Boar Scarer that Mert and Emma Wheeler had in their garden. So if you see someone with some different sizes of bamboo, let Mert know.

I haven't figured out what they will do with it unless they are going to build a Bam-Bam, (that's what I call it, because I can't pronounce its real name.)

They were very neat about taking it, didn't just yank it out, but carefully took it apart.

Most pleasantly surprised when Cathy and Leighton Durr dropped in on us last week, and told us that they have moved back to Gresham. So good to have them closer to home. Welcome back.

Went to a most delightful luncheon at Paula Rockway's last week. Paula's mother, Cel Coglianesi, is here from Chicago. Gerry Owens, Nadine Worlein, Ruth, a friend of Gerry, Doris Freeman and Margaret Freeman had the most delicious luncheon of Italian food you could have gotten anywhere. That Cel can really cook.

What a charmer she is, in the most complimentary manner she is a character of the highest class. Even when we dubbed her the Godmother, she went along with the whole bit and made it most enjoyable. Thank you Paula for including me and congratulations on such a doll of a mother. We hope to be able to keep Cel on mountain until after the fourth.

Just a short trip this past weekend. Just took off on Monday with George and Leslie and went to show them Little Crater Lake. They were properly impressed. Then on to Timothy Lake where we spent the rest of the day. It was a beautiful day. Saw a lot of crawdads, but very few people catching fish.

Had a short visit with Bill Lenz, who is employed by PGE and was busy going around repairing all the vandalism that had been done to the campground over the weekend. Makes you wonder about people when you see what they do to a campground. Certainly not desirable characters to be in your campgrounds. Seems such a small thing to even pick up your campsite before you leave, but it is surprising the number of people that don't.
