Peachy ads help get jobs for kids

SANDY GOAD bought this horse with money she earned babysitting. She got the job through a Peach section ad. Her brother, Robert, left, also got a job. He has bought a car and other things he's wanted for a long time. Little sister, Sharla, 5, out front, approves.

The Goad kids, Robert, 17, and Sandy, 13, wanted a job so they could have their own money.

They did the logical thing by putting an ad in the Peachy section of the Outlook. They both got jobs that will last all summer.

Sandy got a full time job babysitting at Treehill day nursery. She earned enough money to buy a horse and equipment for the horse which she will enter in 4-H shows.

Robert got several offers of jobs. He chose one with a construction company. He has earned enough money to buy a complete stereo outfit, a car, his insurance and a ring for his girl friend.

But he didn't spend it all. Robert now has a bank account.

These kids can tell you if the Peachy ads get results.
