Canning workshop scheduled

Home canners are invited to attend a free workshop on canning and storing garden vegetables to be presented at Clackamas Community College Thursday, July 26, at 7 p.m. in McLoughlin Hall.

The workshop will be taught by Oregon State University Extension home economists Mrs. Marilyn Lunner and Mrs. Caroline Cannon.

The general public as well as participants in the Clackamas County Green Fingers program have been invited to the session according to Bill Hargadine, workshop coordinator.

County Demos to hold picnic

Sunday, July 29, the Clackamas Democratic Party will hold their annual picnic at McIver State Park, Area A.

Following the 1 p.m. potluck, there will be afternoon and evening programs along with games, prizes and speeches. State and county democratic elected officials have been scheduled to speak and answer questions.

There will be donkey rides for the children. Park admission is free.

Organizers of the picnic ask that those planning on attending the potluck whose names begin with A-K bring hot dishes, L-R salads, and S-Z desserts; everyone should bring their own tableware. Coffee and soft drinks will be provided.

THOSE WHO attended the chicken barbecue and funday activities at the Oral Hull Park for the Blind also included a tour of the Gardens of Enchantment. The annual event was well attended during this Centennial year.
