Katherine Ann Erickson married in Sandy church

Immanuel Lutheran Church in Sandy was the setting for the June 23 wedding of Katherine Ann Erickson and Roger Nolan Schilperhoort.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Erickson, Maupin, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Schilperhoort, Sandy.

The candlelight double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank Koepke.

The organist was Mrs. Richard Alexander and Mrs. Frank Koepke sang.

The bride wore a dacron-polyester gown with long bishop sleeves. Her full length veil and train was fully bordered with chantilly lace.

The bride's father gave her away in marriage.

Elizabeth Erickson served as her sister's maid of honor. She wore a blue, lavender and white empire gown with a floppy hat trimmed with ribbons.

The best of the attendants, who wore hats and outfits matching the maid of honor, were Mrs. Lala Cipriano, Mrs. Laurie Krebs and Miss Laurie Dunham.

Flower girls were Tiffany Schneider and Paula Hallgren. Steve Burns served as best man. Ushers were the bridegroom's brothers, Ralph, David and Dennis.

(Katherine Ann Erickson)

A church reception for the approximately 375 guests was held after the ceremony.

Assisting at the reception were Miss Debbie Claus, Mrs. Harald Clark, Mrs. Leo Anderson, Mrs. Carl Neumann, Debbie Koepke was in charge of the guest book.

The bride was graduated from Sandy High School in 1972. The bridegroom was graduated from Sam Barlow High School in 1971 and is presently employed at Viking Sprinkling Company.

The couple will make their home in Gresham.

Couple at home in Sandy

St. John's Catholic Church at Welches was the setting for the nuptial Mass, conducted by Father Carl Gimpl, June 16, where Robbie Knoll married Jerry Ocheskey.

The church was decorated with alter baskets of white and yellow gladiolas, daisy mums and babies'-breath, candelabra with white tapers, and two-toned yellow bows decorated the front pews.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Knoll Sr., was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length empire gown of peau de soie, styled with butterfly sleeves. It was overlaid in swiss organza, embroidered with daisies and grapes. The former Robbie Knoll carried a cascade of white and yellow daisies, with yellow roses and babies'-breath.

Shelley Sperr, Government Camp, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length empire dress of daisy embossed yellow cotton.

Bridesmaids were Pat Slegers of Dayton, Sue Butcher of Seattle, Wash., and Sheila Knoll, sister-in-law of the bride. They were attired in floor length empire dresses of mint green daisy embossed cotton. The attendants all wore yellow and white daisy headbands and carried white wicker baskets of white daisy mums, yellow snapdragons and babies'-breath.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ocheskey of Sheldahl, Iowa, wore a white tuxedo with yellow ruffled shirt. The groom's men were Dave Swafford of Hood River, James Knoll Jr. of Beaverton and Dave Knoll Tigard, brothers of the bride. They wore black tuxedos with mint-green ruffled shirts. Sister Kathryn Knoll, Salem, sister of the bride, composed and sang the entrance song. She also played the guitar accompaniment when she and Sister Georgia Tribble of Seattle sang for communion.

MR. AND MRS. JERRY OCHESKEY
(Robbie Knoll)

The bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Amy Neiman, and paternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Leon Moulthrop of Binghamton, N.Y., Mr. and Mrs. Laird, Des Moines, Iowa, Mrs. Edward Ocheskey and daughters Mary and Karen of Sheldahl, Iowa; Edward Knoll, Mt. Hebron, Calif. and Mr. Paul Deiterle, Eugene, uncles of the bride.

A dinner for the families of the bride and groom was hosted by Loretta Bender and Edward Knoll, uncle of the bride, at the Forest Inn at Alder Creek.

After the honeymoon at Spanish Head resort on the Oregon Coast the newlyweds are at home near Sandy where the groom is employed at the Pioneer honestead winery. The bride, who is employed bin Portland, graduated from Sandy High School and attended Oregon State University. Her husband is a graduate of John F. Kennedy College in Nebraska.

Out of town guests who at-

Rolph-Neibauer exchange vows

Janet L. Rolph and Gary R. Neibauer exchanged vows June 16 at St. Henry Catholic Church in Gresham.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.D. Rolph, Rt. 4 Box 1490, Boring. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph I. Neibauer, 222 NE Division, Gresham.

The bride's gown was made by her mother. It had a high neck and long sleeves and the dress was made of white satin embroidered with lilies of the valley. The veil was silk embroidered with lilies of the valley.

The bride carried pink roses and babies'-breath.

Sandy Ross was the honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Diane Paulsen and Denise Wolters.

Darold Wheeler, cousin of the bridegroom was best man. Ushers were Myron Rolph and Steve Watkins.

Approximately 150 guests attended the wedding and church reception.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Donald Wolcott, Mrs. Helen Harvey, Mrs. Charlene Suratt, Mrs. Colleen Skibba, Mrs. Jean Maddalone, Mrs. Cheryl Struttman in charge of the guest book.

Special guest were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Clapp.

After a honeymoon to Cannon Beach, the couple is at home in Portland.

The bride is employed by PHA Companies. The bridegroom works for Rose Heating Company.

Two more Sandy girls have returned from a fun week at Camp Fire Girls Camp Onahlee in Molalla. Melani Ferguson and Jackie Tomlin spent the week living in an 'A' frame cabin, in the section of the camp known as Latani, with their counselor "Miss Hummingbird."

The girls swam every day and Jackie passed her Red Cross Advanced Beginners test.

One day the girls went creek walking where they saw lots of fish and crawdads. They also went on a hike and camped out overnight by the river. Jackie and Melani brought home many craft items made from nature materials found at camp.

Their last night the girls all took part in a ceremonial held out in the woods around a fire. Awards earned during the week were presented to the girls and the two Sandy girls both received their Fire Tenders patch.

The girls had a wonderful week at camp and are looking forward to going again next year. Melani earned her week at camp by selling 150 boxes of candy during the annual Camp Fire Girls candy sale held earlier this year and Jackie earned two-thirds of her way by selling 100 boxes. Thanks to the people in the Welches, Sandy, Boring area 12 girls earned either partial or full campships. Next year when you buy candy from a Camp Fire Girl remember you are helping the camp scholarship fund.

Gorge tour

The beauty and history of the Columbia River Gorge will be discovered in the Aug. 17 Mt. Hood Community College summer tour.

Participants will travel by college vehicles to Multnomah Falls and cross the Columbia at The Dalles to visit the Mary Hill Museum.

Beacon Rock is the next stop on the tour. Hikers will have an opportunity to tackle the monolith and will be rewarded by a spectacular view of the Gorge. From there, it's home via the Bridge of the Gods.

Persons taking the hiking tour are asked to wear hiking shoes and casual clothes, and bring a lunch. A nominal registration fee will be charged. Minimum age for participants is twelve.

The group will leave at 9 a.m. and return to the college at 5 p.m. Transportation will be provided by MHCC, and those interested are asked to meet by the flag poles in front of the main academic spine on campus.

For further information, call 666-1561, ext. 260.
