Bride carries heirloom handkerchief

Edith Ann Zimmerman carried her great-grandmother's handkerchief from Norway as she exchanged vows with Michael Joe Granum, Saturday, June 30 at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Sandy.

The new Mrs. Granum who is a Sandy High graduate, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Zimmerman, Boring, Mrs. Jeanne Granum, Oroville, Calif., and Ethan Granum, Portland, are the parents of the groom, who graduated from Grant High, and attended Mt. Hood Community College.

Blue delphiniums with white gladiolas and daisies carried out the brides color scheme in the altar and side bouquets. The pews were decorated with blue and white bows with white carnations.

The Rev. Frank Koepke performed the double ring ceremony at 2:00 in the afternoon. Music was provided by organist Mrs. Richard (Dyann) Alexander, Gresham. Soloist Mrs. Dan (Anne Marie) Amstad sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Greatest of These is Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white floor length gown, styled with a high neck, sheer ruffled yoke and sleeves. The train had a wide ruffle trimmed with embroidery which matched that on the sleeves, and the lace applique on the hem of the skirt. A camelot headpiece with a lace-edged illusion veil completed her ensemble.

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL JOE GRANUM
(Edith Ann Zimmerman)

Along with her great-grandmother's handkerchief, the bride carried a nosegay of white rosebuds, light blue delphiniums and baby's-breath. The white ribbon streamers were trimmed in blue baby's-breath.

Mrs. William (Donna) Steele was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a floor length gown of blue and white floral print styled with long sleeves and plated trim at the collar and cuffs. A white hat, trimmed with blue delphiniums and blue and white streamers matched her clutch bouquet of blue delphiniums with white carnations and baby's-breath. Bridesmaids were La Verne and Beverly Zimmerman, also sisters of the bride. They were similarly attired.

Brother of the groom, Ted Granum, was best man. Ushers were Douglas Fah and David Youngblood.

A reception for the guests followed in the church. Mrs. Leonard (Donna) Holz and Mrs. Leo (Viola) Anderson poured punch and coffee, while Mrs. David (Gladys) Granum and Miss Ethel Lloyd cut cake.

Also assisting were Miss Vicki Lloyd, scrolls, Miss Tonya Collins, guest book, and Miss Linda Holz, rice. Miss Susan Moore and Miss Marcia Gynther were in charge of gifts.

Special guests were grandparents Mr. and Mrs. William Zimmerman, Royalton, Minn. Also attending from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zimmerman, Seattle, Wash. and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holz, Wilsonville.

The bride changed to an aqua crepe dress with white trim for the couple's wedding trip to Lake Louise in Alberta, Canada. Accenting her costume was a corsage of white gardenia with white rosebuds. The couple is at home in Portland, where the groom is a partner in the Granum Harris Construction Company.

MR. LEE IRWIN, 2246 N.E. 26th, Troutdale, has announced the engagement of his daughter, Anne E. Irwin, to David Mark Johnson of Seattle, Wash. The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mr. Al Johnson, Bellevue, Wash. The bride-elect was graduated from Reynolds High School in 1966 and from University of Washington in 1970, where she was affiliated with Alpha Delta Pi sorority. She is a member of Washington Press Women and Daughters of the Pioneers of the State of Washington. The bridegroom-elect was graduated from Bellevue High School in 1966 and from University of Washington in 1971, where he was affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity. The two are presently employed in Seattle, Wash. The engagement announcement was made in Seattle in May. A Nov. 3 wedding is planned at First Presbyterian Church in Portland.

Sherrod of Wempe and Dean Phelps of Brightwood. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Clifford Sherod of Portland. She is a 1970 graduate of Wallace High School in Idaho and is employed by the Hoodland Park Plaza Market. The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Louis Phelps, Brightwood. A 1970 graduate of Sandy Union High he is the manager of Darr's Chevron Station at Gov. Camp. A winter wedding is planned.

AXEL STENGEL of Germany, Sandy's AFS student in 1966-67, was recently married to Miss Renate Thoma. Axel has finished his law studies and is now starting a two-year work-study program, after which he will be a full-fledged lawyer. Axel and Renate hope sometime to visit the States, and of course will include Sandy and his friends here. When he was here Axel stayed with the Glen Schaeffer and Melville Richey families.

Sandy BPW slates meet on Sept. 5

The Oregon Federation president, Shirley Eddy, will be the guest speaker at the Sandy Business and Professional Women's first dinner meeting on Wednesday evening, Sept. 5, at 7:30 p.m. It will be held at the Pink Feather Restaurant.

All business women of the area are cordially invited to attend. Reservations should be telephoned to 668-4723 or 668-4827 by Sept. 4.

Lorene Sieler, membership chairman, is in charge of the program.

Messrs. Eula TenEyck, president of the Sandy Club, and Florence Schmitz, Oregon Business Women's Editor, recently returned from the summer board meeting held at Waldport on Aug. 18-19.

At the August 8 fireside meeting, held at the home of Mrs. Schmitz plans were completed for the Club's Centennial float depicting an 1873 school room and playground. Miss Marguerite Kehrl is float chairman and happily received the Grand Marshal's Award from the judges on Aug. 11.

Yearbook plans were also completed. Those in attendance at this planning session were: Messrs. TenEyck, Schmitz, Ruth Bryant, Esther Hoffmann, Gladys Cannon, Marie Seematter, Sara Berger.

Engagement announced

A dinner at Swiss Chalet Restaurant was the setting for the announcement of the engagement of Vickie Jo Newman and David Douglas Diebel on July 15.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil R. Newman, Rt. 1 Box 709, Boring. The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Diebel, Rt. 3 Box 722-1, Gresham.

Both the bride-elect and the bridegroom-elect were graduated from Sam Barlow High School in 1971 and are students at Southern Oregon College in Ashland. The bridegroom-elect is also a mill worker.

A Sept. 29 wedding has been set at Trinity Lutheran Church in Gresham.

Local teacher retires

Mrs. Agnes Warren, third grade teacher at Sandy Grade School has announced her retirement this summer. Mrs. Warren who has been with the Sandy Elementary School District for fifteen years, will retire under the State Retirement System.

A graduate of Oregon College of Education and the University of Oregon, Mrs. Warren did post graduate work at the latter, and at Portland State College. She has been a life long member of the Oregon Education Association and the National Education Association.

Mrs. Warren plans to stay in Sandy with her husband, John, in their home on Sandy Ridge. Warren is Supervisor of Buildings at Mt. Hood Community College.

America's unmarried population today has annual spending power of some $40 billion.

Youngsters complete vacation Bible school

More than 80 Sandy youngsters graduated Thursday, Aug. 16, from the Vacation Bible School (VBS) held by the Sandy Seventh-day Adventist Church.

According to Mrs. Darlene Clark, director of the VBS, more than 100 children participated in the two week "school." One of the main attractions that drew such response was the craft activities for the children. There are different crafts available for each child's ability, and supervisory help was available to recent figures.

Private camps provide nearly 30,000 sites, versus 30,000 in the public campgrounds, and to recent figures.
