

These finders not keepers

purse, especially one containing money, and credit cards, is not something that is to be returned. It isn't unless, as Mrs. Renee Churchill discovered, the purse is found by honest means.

Churchill and her husband, 81, had found the purse, which Mrs. Churchill then picked up at their home. "I'll remember them from now on," she exclaimed gratefully.

Sandy police make 14 arrests over weekend

The weekend was a busy one for the Sandy police force as 14 arrests were made in the city.

The following is a list of the arrests made by the police:

On Aug. 17, the police arrested Jacqueline E. Fuller, 34, Troutdale, for driving under the influence of intoxicating liquors. She is awaiting trial in district court.

On the same day, the police arrested Thomas Whitby, 41, Rt. 2, Sandy. He was charged with driving under the influence of intoxicating liquors and with suspended license. He is awaiting trial.

On Saturday, the police took into custody a 15-year-old runaway. He is a resident of Eagle Creek and was turned over to juvenile authorities of Clackamas County.

On Aug. 18, 10, 12 and 14 year-old brothers were taken into custody for the theft of two vehicles. The three are residents of Eagle Creek. The vehicles were taken from Glos Ford and have since been recovered.

On Saturday, the police recovered a auto that was stolen from Portland. The car had been stolen from a Pontiac dealership.

On the same day, the police arrested Dane Lundquist, 19, Sandy for minor in possession of alcohol (MIP). He is awaiting trial.

Eugene Beaudoin, 18, Rt. 3, Sandy, was arrested for driving under the influence of liquor and was cited with a MIP. He is awaiting trial.

Stan Bessant, 18, Sandy, was arrested for MIP and is awaiting trial.

Daniel Thompson, 18, Sandy, was arrested for MIP and is also awaiting trial.

Two juvenile males, 16-years-old, were arrested for MIP by Sandy police on Aug. 18. They were lodged with county juvenile authorities.

On Aug. 17, three juveniles, all 16-years-old, were taken into custody also on MIP's. They were turned over to county juvenile authorities.

Conklin in Navy

Navy Fireman Albert N. Conklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noel Conklin and husband of the former Miss Linda A. Hoard, all of Route 2, Boring, is presently undergoing his annual two week summer training cruise aboard the USS Bridget Escort ship in the Mid-Pacific.

He is a 1971 graduate of Sam Barlow High School, Gresham. He will visit the ports of San Francisco and Pearl Harbor during his ship's deployment.

New York was the first U.S. city to exceed a million in population. By 1880 it had 1.2 million residents.
