Bride wears heirloom pendant for marriage

A turquoise pendant belonging to her grandmother accented the bridal ensemble of Deborah Ann Reich, as she exchanged vows with Louis Steven Sanchez. The Immanuel Lutheran Church in Sandy was the scene of the wedding held Saturday, Aug. 4, at 4 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Reich are parents of the bride, who is a graduate of Sandy High School, Concordia Junior College in Portland, and Concordia Teacher's College Seward, Nebraska. Parents of the groom, who attended Glendale College and Pepperdine University, are Mr. and Mrs. Raul V. Sanchez.

White gladiolas, pink chrysanthemums, and babies'-breath decorated the sanctuary for the candlelight ceremony performed by the Rev. Frank Koepke. Miss Carolyn Dey, Stayton accompanied on the organ; soloist was Mrs. Frank Koepke, Sandy. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length empire gown of white organza styled with a high neckline and long sleeves. It featured a front panel of cluney lace with French tucking and a row of covered buttons. The cluney lace was repeated in sleeve panels, pinafore ruffles, and the edge of the chapel train.

A matching camelot headpiece was fashioned from the same cluney lace trimmed with seed pearls. A chapel length illusion veil completed the bridal costume. The former Deborah Ann Reich carried a cascade of white carnations, stephanotis, and pink rosebuds with ivory.

A cousin of the bride, Mrs. Masa Miyake, was matron of honor. She wore a floor length gown of pink, blue, and green floral print cotton, and carried a basket of white daisies, pink rosebuds, and babies'-breath. Bridesmaids were Miss Joan Reich, Sandy, sister of the bride, Mrs. Gary Lee, Tigard, and Mrs. Daniel Lohman, Portland. Their gowns and flowers were identical with that of the matron of honor. Flower girl, Kimberlee Sanchez, the

Couple design rings for garden wedding

MR. AND MRS. ELSON CARL STRAHAN (Jeanette Marie Metsger)

Exchanging wedding bands they designed themselves, Jeanette Marie Metsger and Elson Carl Strahan were married in an outdoor garden ceremony July 21.

The wedding was held at 2 p.m. at the Portland Garden Club with the Rev. Michael Collins officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hall, 2133 S.E. 185, Portland, and Mr. John R. Metsger, Sandy. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack R. Strahan, 2230 N.W. 27th, Corvallis.

The bride's gown was of Victorian design made of peau de soie fabric with cluney lace down the front of the gown and around the bottom of the dress. Long bishop sleeves of fine lace accented the high necked gown with a detachable chapel train trimmed with the delicate lace.

Her fingertip veil was edged in lace and the headpiece was fashioned of daisies.

Maid of honor was Miss Susan Tschache. The two bridesmaids were sisters Judy and Janice Metsger.

They all wore identical dresses of yellow puckered seersucker fashioned in a princess style with scoop neck and puffed short sleeves.

The dresses were made by a friend of the family, Mrs. Howard Shaw. The attendants carried nosegays of white daisies, yellow mums, and orange tinted babies'-breath. Yellow garden hats accented their outfits.

The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Richard Metsger, was in charge of the guest book. Her youngest sister, Nancy Hall, assisted with the gifts.

Best man was Mr. Erik G. Sten of Lake Oswego and ushers were Mr. Richard Williamson, cousin of the bridegroom, and Mr. Richard Metsger, brother of the bride.

Musicians Bill Beach and Doug Fraser of Corvallis sang two solos which were written by the bridegroom especially for his bride on their wedding day. They accompanied themselves on piano and guitar.

Approximately 150 guests attended the wedding and reception which followed.

After a honeymoon trip to Canada the couple is at home in Portland where the bridegroom is manager of a Portland Student Services Housing Unit. Both are juniors at Portland State University. The bride was graduated from Centennial High School in 1971 and the bridegroom from Corvallis High School the same year.
