Hood Community College. The instructors will be there to give their children and to answer questions. For any beforehand information call Meredith Closser at 622-3495 or Cecily Closser at 622-3254, Government Camp.

000

PLAN TO DROP IN at Charlie's Place in Government Camp this Saturday night Sept. 15, and help him celebrate his 50th birthday! My how time flies when you're having fun!

000

AND THINGS: The Steelheaders had their annual picnic on Sunday at Wildwood Park. A large crowd attended and was given the "Sportsman of the Year" award. There were games of course, such as a Casting Tournament and one directed by Mark Bachman, Herbie Forbes, and Red Sladky took top honors in the women's division. The scores not available at this writing. One more thing, 14 year old Laurie Updike broke her shoulder on the field, and an ambulance was called.

000

PLAYERS had another extraordinary night with an crowd arriving Saturday night to see yet another "Born Yesterday". This may be the final offering of that three act melodrama, "Dirty Work at the ... will be coming up ... more about this later.

000

HOOD LIONS had two beautiful, sunny mornings for breakfast over the Labor Day Week-end. Everyone in the area must have shown up once and many on the second day. Lions make excellent cooks! Much for a ladies horse shoe pitching match ... eleven gals ... yeah, and guess who won the ham ... and the darn tar and feathers when needed! Milt Fox won the booby prize (a rather scrawny chicken) for missing a shotgun target ... so, who's perfect ...

000

ERING OF FRIENDS of Nancy Spencer arrived at her home recently with food and drink to help her through the day ... and a merry time it was!

000

WILLIAMS, congenial paymaster at the Wemme Bank in New York soon to meet her sister, Sheila Churchill and Joyce who is also from England, hasn't seen her sister in seven years!

000

WELT home from hospital after surgery ... up and doing well.

000
