Given All Workers Not Winning a Major Award

To be considered active, a worker must turn in at least two subscriptions each Saturday during the three week campaign.

PARENTS ARE INVITED TO COME TO THE OFFICE WITH THEIR YOUNGSTERS TO LEARN ALL THE DETAILS OF THE CAMPAIGN.

You may sell one subscription, and bring the money for it when you come to the office with your entry blank. We will fill out your first receipt and show you how to use your receipt books.

— Important Notice —

Workers are not allowed to do any advance work on the campaign before Saturday. Any candidate getting promises or selling more than one subscription, which they are allowed to bring with their entry blank will be disqualified from working on the campaign. This is in fairness to all candidates. Get Your supplies and be ready for a good start Saturday, Sept. 15th.

Boys and girls under 16 years of age must have the written consent of their parents before being allowed to enter the campaign. Parents are allowed and encouraged to help their worker. Parent's signature on entry blank is sufficient. This contest is limited to students only.

PRIZES WILL BE AWARDED ON A POINT BASIS

Worker with the most points will get 1st choice, worker with 2nd most points will have 2nd choice, and so on down the line.

Employee or near relative of any employee of THE POST is not allowed to enter the campaign. Correspondent's families will be allowed to compete. Children under 16 years must have consent of their parents or guardian who will be expected to accompany the children.

Bonus of 2,000 votes will be given each candidate turning in more subscriptions (either old or new) on the opening day of the campaign, and an additional 3,000 extra votes will be given to the candidate turning in the most subscriptions. These bonus votes will be given the next three report days.

Saturday will be report day. All week's collections must be turned in each week. Carry overs will not count as votes.

Prizes must be won in accordance with the conditions of the campaign and no candidate will be promised a certain prize for a certain number of subscriptions or so much money.

Workers are not confined to their own town or neighborhood for subscriptions, but may get orders from any person at any address.

Only one member of a family will be allowed to enter; but other members of the family are urged to help their workers.

Management must accompany all subscriptions. The management reserves the right to add to these rules for the protection of the campaign and candidates.
