Couple wed in Portland

Baskets of flowers in gold and white decorated St. Agatha's Church in Portland, for the wedding of Ruth Ann Kinish and Russell Jacob Konnell, Jr. Sept. 29, 2:00 p.m.

The new Mrs. Konnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Kinish, graduated from Cleveland High School in Portland. The groom, a Sandy High graduate, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jacob Konnell, Sr. of Brightwood.

Father Christopher Predeck, O.S.B. performed the double ring service. Ellen Frank provided the organ music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white organza trimmed with lace. It was styled with pearl buttons down the front, and a chapel train. Her floor length veil complemented her ensemble. She carried gold roses, with white orchids and babies'-breath.

Mrs. William Northrup served as matron of honor. She wore a floor length gown of gold crepe, with white lace trim. She carried white carnations, gold daisies, and babies'-breath.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Bruce Konnell, and Mrs. Vic Johnson, who were similarly attired.

Best man was William Northrup, friend of the groom. Ushers were Steve Konnell, and Bruce Konnell. Robbie Northrup was ring-bearer.

The approximately 100 wedding guests attended the reception following in the church hall.

Assisting at the reception were Diane Baseel, Barb Kirkpatrick, Karen Phelps, Vickie Jaenke, Rhonda Konnell, Mrs. Theresa Konnell, Carol Hanrahan and Shelly Johnson.

The newlyweds are at home in Gresham, after a honeymoon trip to the Oregon coast.

MRS. RUSSELL JACOB KONNELL, JR.
(Ruth Ann Kinish)

Golden Age Club gets gift towards building

A bus load of Golden Age Club members enjoyed a trip to the Grotto in Portland one day last week.

The day was ideal, and all agreed that it was a fine outing. A trip to the Peterson Rock Gardens is planned for Oct. 16, and there is still time to make reservations. The bus will leave at 8 a.m. from the Odd-Fellows Hall parking lot. The fare is $4.50. A stop for lunch will be made on the way. Call 668-4936 for information. All senior citizens are welcome.

A gift of $150 was received from the East Multnomah, North Clackamas County Migrant Clothing Unit of Sandy, which closed its doors Oct. 1.

Mrs. Viola Simmons presented the check to the Golden Age Club, Inc. at a recent meeting. Mrs. Simmons, overseer of the clothing unit in Sandy for several years, designated the gift for the building fund.

It will be deposited in the savings account for this purpose until time of building. Anyone wishing to donate towards this cause may deposit their gift at the Clackamas County Bank in Sandy, for the Golden Age Club Inc. building fund.

Sandy alums slate meet

Alumni from the class of '48 will be honored at the next meeting of the Sandy High School Alumni Association, set for Wednesday, Oct. 17, from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in Room 20 at the high school.

All alumni are welcome to attend.

City issues three permits

The city of Sandy issued three permits during September concerning sewer and water.

One permit each was issued for plumbing, drainfield and water, according to Tom Day building inspector.

Flea market scheduled

A flea market is being sponsored by the Oral Hull Foundation for the Blind.

It will be Oct. 18-19-20 at the Odd Fellows Hall in Sandy. Doors will open noon to 8 p.m. Thursday and Friday and 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Saturday.

The foundation is a non-profit organization engaged in building a recreation center in Sandy. It serves the blind in Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

For more information call 668-6195.

Wildwood club has picnic

Wildwood Garden Club, organized in the Damascus area in 1964, began its year with a picnic at Blue Lake Park.

Officers are: Mrs. Helen Bickford, president; Mrs. Harriet Loomis, vice-president; Mrs. Barbara Siron, secretary; and Mrs. Luta Wilson, treasurer.

Committees were named and a new member was accepted. Mrs. Loomis showed the white ribbon she got on the arrangement she had entered at Clackamas County Fair in the name of Wildwood Garden Club.

Mrs. Bickford and Mrs. Loomis reported on the state garden club convention and presented tote bags they had made to the women present.

Twelve women attended the fall garden clinic at Clackamas Community College and 13 attended the district meeting.

Mrs. Loomis entered seven flower arrangements and six horticulture exhibits in the recent Happy Valley Flower show, winning 13 blue and red ribbons.

A little theater group was scheduled to perform at the Oct. 10 meeting.

County rejects grant

Clackamas County rejected a matching grant to help with flood mapping in the county.

According to county officials, the grant had to be rejected because the county could not budget the needed $6,400 to match the $12,800 available through the grant.

The grant was available through the Local Government Relations Division of the state Executive Department for flood plan mapping.

Over 80 per cent of the world population increase is occurring in the developing nations of Asia, Africa and Latin America.
