

Book fair set at high school

The Sandy High School Reading Program will sponsor a student book fair from Oct. 22 to Oct. 26. Students will be able to browse and purchase books.

The book fair will be open from 11:45 a.m. to 2 p.m. and by special arrangement for whole classes throughout the week. Books will be on display in the library.

The book fair committee invited all students, parents and visitors to attend the fair. The fair will encourage student interest in reading and in building home libraries, and will also contribute to a worthwhile project.

All profits will be used to purchase books and magazines for Sandy High School's reading program. The reading program is sponsoring this event, with Mrs. Sandra Bowie serving as book fair chairman.

The book fair display will include attractive new books from many publishers in all popular price ranges:—

wonderful books to read or to give as gifts. All reading interests will be represented, including classics, fiction, biographies, adventure stories, science, nature, crafts, mystery and reference books.

The committee is working with Educational Reading Service, a professional book fair company, to furnish an individual selection of books for the fair.

GOP women set potluck

Metro-East Republican Women will have a bunco party and potluck luncheon at 10 a.m. Oct. 23 at Portland Federal Savings and Loan, 181st and Burnside.
