

Former resident promoted

SANDRA CARPENTER

Harry L. Wendland, vice president and sales promotion manager, announced last week that Sandra E. Carpenter has been appointed Corporate Special Events Director for Meier & Frank Co., a division of The May Department Stores Company.

In her new assignment, Mrs. Carpenter will plan and coordinate all special events in all five Meier & Frank stores.

Mrs. Carpenter, the former Sandra Sindt, was a Sandy resident for 13 years, having graduated from Sandy Grade and High Schools where she was active in student government and National Honor Society. Mrs. Carpenter also attended Oregon State and Portland State Universities.

OBITUARIES

James Smith

Funeral services for James Samuel Smith, 82, of 5601 S.E. 122nd, Portland, will be held Thursday, Nov. 1, at 1:30 p.m. at Willamette National Cemetery with Bateman Funeral Chapel as directors.

Smith was born in Seneca, Mo., the son of Martin and Evangeline Smith. He died at his residence on Oct. 29, the result of an extended illness.

As a young boy of 8 years he moved with his family to the Tygh Valley area of Oregon where he resided until 1960. At that time he moved to Sandy, where he resided for 5 years until he moved to his present address.

He is survived by his children Doris Smith and Josephine Smith both of Lincoln, Neb., a brother William of Lincoln City and a sister Savannah Lewis of The Dalles.

Private interment will be held in the Willamette National Cemetery in Portland.

Hattie Dahrens

Funeral services for Hattie Dahrens, 313 Pleasant St., Sandy, were held on Tuesday Oct. 29 in the chapel of Sandy Funeral Home.

Mrs. Dahrens was born Hattie Allie Burbank on August 26, 1899 in Airle. She was raised in the Monmouth-Airle area where she attended school and grew to womanhood.

In 1918, she was united in marriage to Adolph Herman Dahrens in Vancouver, Wash. They made their permanent home in the Sandy area where they raised their family. Mrs. Dahrens was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Dahrens died in a Sandy nursing home on Oct. 24, 1973 after a lengthy illness. She was 74 years of age.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Adolph, in 1970. Survivors include one daughter, Marie Tomlin, Gresham; three sons, Merl C. Dahrens, Sandy; Stanley Dahrens, Estacada; and Orville Dahrens, Sandy; one sister, Virgie Pankratz, Colton; three brothers, A. L. Burbank, Colton; O. N. Burbank and E. A. Burbank of Monmouth; 13 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Private interment followed the services at Firhill Memorial Cemetery in Sandy.

Scenic river rules adopted

Administrative rules for the Sandy Scenic Waterway were adopted last week by the Oregon Transportation Commission.

The rules, pertaining specifically to the 12.5 miles of the Sandy designated as a Scenic River in July, deal with construction along the river from Dodge to Dabney Parks.

Marilyn Taylor October bride

Marilyn D'Anne Taylor chose colors of wine and pink for her wedding to Marvin Lee Marjama Oct. 13.

First Baptist Church, Gresham, was the setting for the 7:30 p.m. vows performed by the Rev. Vern Kirsche.

The bride, formerly of 900 NW Mawcrest, Gresham, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Taylor, Seattle, Wash. She attended Reynolds High School through 1966 and was graduated from Skyline High School, Salt Lake City, Utah, in 1967.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Marjama. He is a 1962 graduate of Paradise, Calif., High School and is self-employed as a contractor.

The bride carried pink daisies, roses, babies' breath and carnations with her floor-length gown.

LeAnn Eklund, the honor attendant and cousin of the bride, also served as soloist. She wore a wine colored dress. Bridesmaids were Dian

Kuehn and Sandy and Linda Taylor, Farview. The attendants carried pink and white flowers.

Donald Marjama served his brother as best man. Ushers were Earl Marjama, Jerry Marjama and Bob Marjama, all of Paradise.

The couple greeted approximately 185 guests at the church. Paula Ross registered guests.

Following a wedding trip to Sunriver and California, the couple will be at home in Sandy.

Reception to honor Charles Lane

There will be a reception honoring Charles Lane on Sunday Nov. 4 from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the Sandy Community School.

Everyone is invited.
