Teachers wed in Sandy

The Sandy Assembly of God Church was decorated with the bride's colors of purple and turquoise for the marriage of Linda Dell Brook and Larry Allan Verdoorn, Nov. 17.

Parents of the bride, who teaches fifth grade at Boring Elementary School, are Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Brook, Sandy. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Verdoorn, Boring, are parents of the groom, who is a music teacher at Powell Valley School in Gresham. Both are graduates of Sandy High School.

The church sanctuary was decked with lavender chrysanthemums, and turquoise carnations with white gladiolas for the candlelight service. The Rev. Edward Neuenfeldt, pastor of the Community Presbyterian Church, performed the double ring service.

Organist was Mrs. Ardith Goin. Soloists were Ardith Goin and Mrs. Nancy Gooding. Kimberly and Karin Qualls sang a duet also.

The former Linda Dell Brook, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length empire gown of white chiffon and satin crepe, created by the bride and her mother. It was styled with a scoop-necked lace bodice, over a high necked long sleeved one of chiffon. The bodice was trimmed with a lace stand-up collar. The satin crepe skirt, overlaid with chiffon had a lace cathedral length train of the same lace.

Completing her ensemble was a garland style headpiece, trimmed with seed pearls, attached to a finger-tip illusion veil. The bride carried a cascade of white roses, and turquoise carnations with baby's-breath.

Honor attendants were Mrs. Sandi Founds, sister of the bride, and Pat O'Grady, Juneau, Alaska. The matron and maid of honor wore identical purple polyester floor length gowns, styled like the bride's gown. They were trimmed with white daisies, and worn with headpieces of purple bows, attached to matching veils. Each attendant carried a single white rose.

Bridesmaids included Mrs. Connie Verdoorn, Sacramento, sister-in-law of the bride, Debbie Brook, sister of the bride, and Cheryl Verdoorn, sister of the groom. They wore the same floor length gowns of purple polyester as the honor attendants, with similar headpieces and flowers.

Maxine Asakawa, Portland, and Kay Kruckenburg, Gresham, served as candlelighters. They wore floor length empire gowns of purple and turquoise polyester print, in a matching style and similar headpieces.

Flower girls, Linda and Debbie Parker, also had print floor length empire gowns, with satin ribbon belts, and similar headpieces. They carried baskets of chrysanthemums. Serving as best man for his brother was Ronald Verdoorn of Sacramento, Calif. Ushers were Leon Verdoorn, brother of the groom, Henry Verdoorn, Jr., uncle of the groom, Terry Founds, brother-in-law of the bride, and Mike Stewart.

The approximately 400 wedding guests attended the reception following in the church hall.

Assisting at the reception were Lisa and Jan Updegrave, Moses Lake, Wash., cousins of the bride; Ellen Mickel, Sweet Home; Maggie Junkins, Eugene; Mrs. Sally Fleming, Canby; Mrs. Diane Verdoorn, Portland. Host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Berger, Sandy.

Special guests included

MR. AND MRS. LARRY ALLAN VERDOORN
(Linda Dell Brook)

grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Darnell, Sandy, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Brook, Troutdale; and grandparents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Verdoorn, Sr., Hospers, Iowa.

Guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Darnell, Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Parker, Vancouver, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Merv Fleming, Canby; and Mrs. Albert Shaver, Oregon City.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Holt, and Elvanne, Tacoma, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Updegrave, Moses Lake, Wash.; and Mrs. Brad McMillan, Milton Freewater.

For the couple's wedding trip to San Francisco and Sacramento, the new Mrs. Verdoorn wore a beige coat dress with a corsage of roses and carnations.

The newlyweds are at home in Boring.

Christmas concerts set

Sandy Elementary music department under the direction of Gerald Dickson and Karen Brisbin has scheduled two Christmas programs.

The intermediate program will be held today, Thursday, at 7:30 p.m. in the upper grade gym. Singers and band members from grades four, five, and six will perform a variety of musical selections.

Students in the seventh and eighth grades will hold their program Friday, Dec. 21, at 10 a.m. in the upper grade gym. The Concert Band, Stage Band, and Chorus will participate in the program of popular music.

Music groups slate holiday concert tonight

"Twas the night before Christmas..." muses bandmaster Don Gardner. And with tonight set as the date for the annual Sandy High School Christmas concert, he isn't far off.

Actually Clement Moore's illustrious poem is the setting for a musical rendition which will be performed by the symphonic band to the accompaniment of a reading by drama director Doug Soesbe.

Seven groups will perform Thursday evening. Audiences will hear the symphonic choir, freshmen choir, Madrigals, Pionaires, symphonic band, concert band, and the brass ensemble. The evening will climax with caroling where all guests and performers will sing together.

The concert begins in the cafeteria at 8 p.m.

AFS search for host home begins

The Sandy High School chapter of the American Field Service has begun its search for someone to host next year's foreign student. Because of an earlier deadline, the A.F.S. would like to have names of interested parties submitted by Jan. 15.

This year, there are no restrictions on choosing the host or hostess, as there have been in the past. Anyone who can provide a good home is urged to apply. This includes single people, as well as married couples without children. The prospective host family or person has the option of choosing whether to invite a boy or girl.

Those interested should call Mrs. Al Lamke at 668-6217, or Mrs. Glen Carmony, 668-4731. Or they may contact Sandy High principal William MacFarlane at 668-4151.

Baha'is hold meet

The Baha'is of Clackamas County held a meeting for the annual Baha'i observance of Human Rights Day at the Sandy Odd Fellows Lodge on Dec. 10.

Paul Pettit, a member of the Auxiliary Board of the Baha'i Faith for North America, spoke on the topic, "Human Rights are God-given Rights." Approximately 25 people attended.

Clackamas sets winter registration

Winter Quarter registration at Clackamas Community College will be open through Jan. 18, according to Art Hames, director of counseling. Classes on campus will begin Thursday, Jan. 3. Off campus night classes are scheduled to begin Monday, Jan. 7.

Counseling offices and the Registrar's Office will be open weekdays through the Christmas vacation period except for Dec. 24 and 31, when the college will be closed as part of its energy saving efforts.

Registration hours will run from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Counselors will be available from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Night registration will begin Jan. 2, and run from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday until Jan. 10.

Hames says schedules are available from the college.
